THE APPROACH

1. The Vestry Prayer
2. Procession – The Word, Choir, Elders, Ministers and the Casket

3. RCH 592

1. There is a land of pure delight,
   Where saints immortal reign;
   Infinite day excludes the night.
   And pleasures banish pain;

I know that my Redeemer lives, and that in the end he will stand upon the earth. And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God;
(Job 19:25-26 NIV)

2. There everlasting spring abides,
   And never-withering flowers;
   Death, like a narrow sea, divides
   This heavenly land from ours.

Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me, has eternal life; he does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.
(John 5:24 RSV)

3. Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
   Stand dressed in living green;
   So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
   And Jordan rolled between.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
(2 Cor 5:1 NRSV)

4. But timorous mortals start and shrink
   To cross this narrow sea,
   And linger, shivering on the brink,
   And fear to launch away.

(For) we know that in everything God works for good with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose. (Rom 8:28 RSV)

5. O could we make our doubts remove–
   Those gloomy doubts that rise–

And see the Canaan that we love,
With unbeclouded eyes;

Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands. (2 Cor. 5:1)

6. Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

4. Prelude RCH 194 (1&4)

1. BREATHE on me, breath of God;
Fill me with life anew,
That I may love what Thou dost love,
And do what Thou wouldst do.

4. Breathe on me, breath of God;
So shall I never die,
But live with Thee the perfect life
Of Thine eternity.

5. Call to worship
6. Congregational Hymn: RCH 135

1. Rejoice, the Lord is King;
Your Lord and King adore;
Mortals, give thanks and sing
And triumph evermore:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice; again I say, 'Rejoice'

2. Jesus, the Saviour, reigns,
The God of truth and love;
When He had purged our stains,
He took His seat above:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice; again I say, 'Rejoice'

3. His Kingdom cannot fail;
He rules o'er earth and heaven;
The keys of death and hell
Are to our Jesus given:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice; again I say, 'Rejoice.'

4. He sits at God's right hand
Till all His foes submit,
And bow to His command,
And fall beneath His feet:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice; again I say, 'Rejoice.'

5. Rejoice in glorious hope;
Jesus, the Judge, shall come,
And take His servants up
To their eternal home;
We soon shall hear the archangel's voice;
The trump of God shall sound, 'Rejoice.'

7. Scriptural Sentences/Prayers of Adoration, Confession and Supplication
8. Anthem by Big Qua Town Parish Choir

14. Hymn Before Sermon RCH 592

1. There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

2. There everlasting spring abides,
And never withering flowers:
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heav'nly land from ours.

3. Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dressed in living green:
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.

4. But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea;

And linger, shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.

5. O! Could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy thoughts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unbeclouded eyes!

6. Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

16. Ascription of Glory

THE RESPONSE

17. Apostles' Creed
18. Prayer of Thanksgiving, Intercession and the Lord's Prayer
19. Song by the Bereaved Family
20. Prayer for the Bereaved Family
21. Announcements
22. Offering(s)
    a. Freewill – The Contemporary Choir
    b. Welfare Offering for the Family
    c. Dedication of offering
23. Closing Hymn RCH 331

1. O LORD of life, where'er they be,
Safe in Thine own eternity,
Our dead are living unto Thee.
Hallelujah!

2. All souls are Thine, and, here or there,
They rest within Thy sheltering care;
One providence alike they share.
Hallelujah!

3. Thy word is true, Thy ways are just;
Above the requiem, 'Dust to dust,'
Shall rise our psalm of grateful trust.
Hallelujah!

4. O happy they in God who rest,
   No more by fear and doubt oppressed;
   Living or dying, they are blest
   Hallelujah!

24. Benediction –

25. Recessional Hymn RCH 591 –

The Word, Choir, Elders, Ministers, the Casket and the Family

1. Every morning the red sun
   Rises warm and bright;
   But the evening cometh on,
   And the dark cold night;
   There's a bright land far-away
   Where 'tis never-ending day

2. Every spring the sweet young flowers
   Open bright and gay;
   Till the chilly autumn hours
   Withers them away;
   There's a land we have not seen,
   Where the trees are always green.

3. Little birds sing songs of praise
   All the summer long;
   But in cold, shorter days
   They forget their song;
   There's a place where angels sing
   Ceaseless praises to their Kings.

4. Christ our Lord is ever near
   Those who follow Him;
   But we cannot see Him here,
   For our eyes are dim;
   There is a most happy place,
   Where men always see His face.

5. Who shall go to that bright land?
   All who love the right:
   Holy children there shall stand
   In their robes of white;
   For that heaven, so bright and blest,
   Is our everlasting rest.

AT THE GRAVESIDE

1 Congregational Hymn RCH 329

1. When our heads are bowed with woe,
   When our bitter tears o'erflow,
   When we mourn the lost, the dear,
   Jesus, Son of Mary hear!

2. Thou our throbbing flesh hast worn;
   Thou our mortal griefs hast borne;
   Thou hast shed the human tear;
   Jesus, Son of Mary hear!

3. When the sullen death-bell tolls
   For our own departing souls,
   When our final doom is near,
   Jesus, Son of Mary hear!

4. Thou hast bowed the dying head:
   Thou the blood of life hast shed;
   Thou hast filled a mortal bier;
   Jesus, Son of Mary hear!

5. When the heart is sad within
   With the thought of all its sin.
   When the spirit shrinks with fear,
   Jesus, Son of Mary hear!

6. Thou the shame, the grief, hast known,
   Though the sins were not Thine own:
   Thou hast deigned their load to bear;
   Jesus, Son of Mary hear!

2 Scriptural Sentences

3 Consecration of the Tomb

4. Committal of the body
5. Congregational Hymn RCH 330

1. NOW the labourer's task is o'er,
Now the battle-day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping
2. There the tears of earth are dried;
There its hidden things are clear;
There the work of life is tried
By a juster Judge than here.

3. There the penitents that turn
To the Cross their dying eyes
All the love of Jesus learn
At His feet in Paradise.

4. 'Earth to earth, and dust to dust,'
Calmly now the words we say;
Leaving her to sleep, in trust,
Till the resurrection day

6. Sealing of the grave – The Choir sings
7. Benediction

AT HOME

Hymn RCH 29

1. NOW thank we all our God,
With hearts and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom His world rejoices,—
Who, from our mothers' arms,
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

2. O may this bounteous God
Through all our lives be near us,
With ever-joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us,
And keep us by His grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

3. All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son and Him who reigns
With them in highest heaven,—
The one, eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

2. Words of comfort
3. Prayers and the Lord's Prayer
4. Benediction

Biography of

LATE MOST REVEREND USANG (RTD.) EKPENYONG ISO

PREAMBLE

Most Reverend Usang Ekpenyong Iso (Rtd.), whose mortal remains lie peacefully before us, was indeed a man of grace upon grace—a man whose life was shaped by divine providence, strengthened by faith, enriched by learning, and devoted to the service of God and humanity.

Nature, by divine design, has bequeathed both life and death to mankind. Despite the advancement of science, medicine, technology, and all the discoveries of human intellect, the mystery of life and the inevitability of death remain ultimately within the sovereign prerogative of Almighty God. As the Psalmist declares:

"So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

—Psalm 90:12 (KJV)

His was a life lived in faith, service, love, leadership, and sacrifice. He came, he served, he touched lives, and he departed, leaving behind a legacy that will continue to speak for generations.

ROOTS, FAMILY AND EARLY FAITH

Most Reverend Usang Ekpenyong Iso was born on 21st September 1954 to the late Ekpenyong Iso and Abo Ekong Odiso. His birth brought immense joy to both families, particularly as the long-awaited male child whose arrival fulfilled the cherished desire of his parents and extended family.

He was born into the distinguished families of the Big Qua and Ediba Qua Clans in Calabar

Municipality, Cross River State. He was a Principal member of the Adohose Family of Big Qua Town and, by virtue of his birth into the Ekong Ambang Royal Family of the Big Qua, Ediba Qua and Nyagasang Qua Clans, a member of the Qua Royal Fraternity.

He was baptized and confirmed in The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, Ediba Qua Parish, Calabar, where the faith that would shape his entire life first took root.

From his earliest years, Usang demonstrated the humility, intelligence, discipline, and sense of duty that would later define his life.

EDUCATION AND THE CLASSROOM

At the appropriate age, young Usang commenced his primary education at Big Qua Presbyterian Primary School, Calabar. He then proceeded to the West African Peoples Institute (WAPI), Calabar, where he pursued his secondary education.

With a strong desire to acquire professional qualifications and contribute meaningfully to the education of young people, he undertook a crash programme at the Government Teachers' Training College, Ikot Ansa, and obtained his Teachers' Certificate Grade II (T.C. II) in 1978.

His thirst for knowledge did not end there. In pursuit of higher education, he proceeded to the College of Education, Uyo, where he obtained the National Certificate in Education (NCE) in 1985.

With these qualifications, he served for many years in the Cross River State civil service, teaching in and later serving as Vice Principal of some of its schools, including:

- Government Technical College, Ikot Effanga Mkpa — Vice Principal, 1991–1994
- Community Secondary School, Oban — Vice Principal, 1994–1995
- West African Peoples Institute (WAPI), Calabar — Vice Principal, 1995–1996

His years in the classroom were defined by discipline, dedication, intellectual ability, and a genuine commitment to young people's development.

His love of learning remained evident throughout his life. Having earned a Bachelor of Divinity (B.D.) in 1990, he later obtained a Postgraduate Diploma in Education (PGDE) from the University of Calabar in 2008. He then began a Master's degree in Educational Administration and Planning, successfully completed his comprehensive examinations, and started work on his thesis.

However, in one of the many sacrifices he made for his family, he chose to discontinue the programme so his wife and children could have greater opportunities and support—a decision that reflected the selflessness and sense of fatherly responsibility that defined his life.

CALL TO THE MINISTRY

In 1986, just a year after completing his NCE, his life took a decisive spiritual turn. His relationship with God had gradually deepened into a compelling call to ordained ministry, and he responded by preparing himself to serve in the Lord's vineyard.

He was admitted into the Theological College of Northern Nigeria, Bukuru, Jos, where he studied diligently and obtained his Bachelor of Divinity (B.D.) degree in 1990.

Following his graduation, he undertook his probation at PCN Yaba Parish, under the guidance of his religious father and mentor, Rev. Chuku Mmahi.

PASTOR, CHAPLAIN AND EDUCATOR (1991–2022)

His first substantive pastoral posting took him to PCN Odukpani Road Parish, Calabar, in 1991, the beginning of a ministry in The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria that would span more than three decades and touch numerous lives. In 1996, he voluntarily retired from the Cross River State civil service to devote himself fully to ordained ministry. At several stations, his pastoral charge was joined by chaplaincy and wider leadership responsibilities:

- Minister i/c, PCN Odukpani Road Parish, Calabar — 1991–1996
- Minister i/c, PCN Henshaw Town Parish, Calabar — 1996–1997
- Chaplain, Edgerly Memorial Girls Secondary School, Calabar — 1996–1997
- Minister i/c, PCN Itigidi Parish, Itigidi — 1997–2000
- Chaplain, Eja Memorial Joint

Hospital — 1997–2000

- Moderator, Abi Presbytery — 1997–2000
- Minister i/c, PCN Okoro-Nu-Odo Parish, Port Harcourt — 2000–2001
- Minister i/c, PCN Ediene Parish, Ediene — 2001–2004
- Synod Clerk, Akwa Synod — 2001–2003
- Moderator, Ediene Presbytery — 2003–2004

He then gave several years to the administration of education under the Church:

- Administrative Secretary, Synod Education Authority, Calabar — 2005–2009
- Principal, Duke Town Secondary School, Calabar — 2006–2010

As an education administrator, he was known for his firmness, fairness, and commitment to academic excellence.

The pulpit however, remained his first calling, and he returned to full-time parish ministry

- Minister i/c, PCN Big Qua Town Parish, Calabar — 2010–2014
- Minister i/c, PCN Efut Ekondo Parish, Calabar — 2014–2019
- Minister i/c, PCN Ediba Qua Parish, Calabar — 2019–2022

His final pastoral posting brought him full circle, back to the parish in which he had been baptized and confirmed.

In every assignment, whether in the parish, the chaplaincy, the presbytery, the synod, or the school, he brought wisdom, courage, and integrity, offering comfort, prayer, and counsel to students, staff, patients, families, and the wider community. He contributed significantly to the spiritual, administrative, educational, and physical development of the Church. Through decades of faithful service, he rose steadily through the ministerial ranks of the Church to its pinnacle, attaining the rank of Most Reverend.

HUSBAND AND FATHER

In 1996, he married Eld. Hon. Mrs Edisua Usang Iso, with whom he shared a beautiful and enduring marital journey of thirty years. Their union was blessed with the four wise men, Iso, Usang, Asi and Ntoe. Through the course of his life and ministry, he also became a father and mentor to many other children whose lives he touched.

He was a devoted husband, a loving father, and a dependable family man. His family was not merely a part of his life; it was one of the greatest expressions of his life's purpose, and he made significant personal sacrifices for the advancement, education, welfare, and future of his wife and children.

SOCIAL LIFE AND PERSONALITY

Beyond his pulpit, classroom, office, and ecclesiastical duties, Most Reverend Usang Iso was a man of remarkable warmth and humanity. He was humble, amiable, gentle, approachable, peaceful, prayerful, and generous. He held numerous roles and responsibilities—not only in the Church, but also in the wider body of Christ, the Qua Nation, and nearly every community in which he found himself.

He loved people and was always willing to share whatever he had with others. His home and heart were open to friends, colleagues, parishioners, family members, and strangers alike.

Wherever he served, he built genuine relationships and was loved and respected by his parishioners and his community.

Many of his admirers affectionately addressed him as "Dear Friend," a fitting expression of the warmth and accessibility that characterized his personality.

He was a man who believed that life was more meaningful when lived for others.

RETIREMENT & GLORIOUS TRANSITION

After many years of dedicated pastoral and ecclesiastical service, he retired from active ministry in 2022. But, as those who knew him would readily testify, he retired from office, but never retired from service; he retired from active pastoral appointment, but never retired from serving God and humanity.

On Tuesday, 28th July 2026, he returned from a medical review, the results of which were reassuring. Later that evening, at approximately 6:55 p.m., he peacefully breathed his last in the loving arms of his beloved wife, at the age of 72.

Though his transition was sudden and deeply painful to his family, friends, the Church, and all who knew him, we choose to see his departure through the eyes of faith. He did not die without hope. He departed in the confidence of the faith he had preached, taught, lived, and defended throughout his earthly pilgrimage.

The words of the Apostle Paul therefore give us comfort:

"For to me to live is Christ,
and to die is gain."
— Philippians 1:21 (KJV)

And as Scripture declares:

"Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they are blessed indeed, for they will rest from their hard work; for their good deeds follow them!"
— Revelation 14:13 (NLT)

LEGACY AND FAREWELL

The life of Most Reverend Usang Iso was a remarkable blend of faith, education, leadership, sacrifice, family, and service. In every sphere of his life, he sought to leave people and institutions better than he met them. His was not a life measured merely by titles or positions held, but by lives touched, people encouraged, souls strengthened, and communities served.

He has finished his earthly race.

He has fought the good fight.

He has kept the faith. (cf. 2 Timothy 4:7) He has answered the Master's call.

His mortal journey has ended, but his legacy lives on—in his family, in the Church, in the educational institutions he served, in the communities he touched, and in the hearts of the many people whose lives he enriched.

With confidence in the resurrection, we can therefore say:

"O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?"

1 Corinthians 15:55 (KJV)

A MAN DESIGNED BY GRACE.
A SERVANT CALLED BY GRACE.
A LIFE LIVED BY GRACE.
A GLORIOUS EXIT INTO ETERNITY.

Rest peacefully, dear friend.
Rest peacefully, faithful servant of God.
Rest peacefully, beloved husband and father.
Rest peacefully, Most Reverend Usang Ekpenyong Iso (Rtd.).
Your work on earth is done.
Your legacy remains.
Your crown awaits.
May your gentle soul rest in perfect peace.
Amen.

A GLORIOUS EXIT OF A

RARE GEM

Tribute to My Beloved Husband,

MOST REV. USANG ISO (RTD.)

Your earthly sojourn was filled with beautiful memories that I will cherish for the rest of my life. I still remember the first day you met my mother and told her that you wanted a wife, not a friend. My mother firmly said to me, "If it is not him, I am not interested in anyone else."

On 12th October this year, we would have celebrated 30 years of marriage. Little did I know that, instead of celebrating our wedding anniversary together, I would be preparing to honour your glorious exit and transition to glory.

God, in His infinite wisdom, has called you peacefully to rest with Him in glory. Though your departure has left a deep void in our hearts, we are comforted by the beautiful legacy you left behind and the precious memories we shared.

You were a builder, peacemaker, distinguished teacher, preacher, counsellor, mentor and friend. You were a role model to many and a cherished friend to your parishioners. To me, you were my teacher, pastor, mentor, editor, counsellor and companion. You were exceptionally gifted with the pen, and your wisdom and ability to express truth with clarity touched and transformed many lives.

The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria will greatly miss your godly and fatherly counsel, your commitment, dedication and selfless service. Though retired, you were never tired of serving God and His people.
The Qua Nation will also miss your invaluable contributions to Qua Education and Qua Bible Translation, as well as your unwavering commitment to the advancement of community work.

Our family will deeply miss your fatherly love, care, guidance and protection. Your friends will miss a trustworthy, honest, reliable and dependable companion.

By the grace of God, you raised godly and dutiful children, instilling in them the values of discipline, responsibility and service. You showed me love and kindness, supported my educational advancement and political career, and appreciated my contributions to the ministry and the wider family.

You disciplined when necessary, but always with love. You were open-minded and fearless, yet respectful; honest, sincere and accountable in every responsibility entrusted to you. You led by example and upheld the highest standards in the ministry. Your life was a testimony of faith, integrity, service and devotion to God.
My dear husband, your passing was sudden, but even in death, God honoured you. Pain and sickness did not have the final victory over you. You slept peacefully and left us with one precious and unforgettable word: "Pray." That final counsel is a priceless gift that will sustain us throughout our earthly journey—a gift more precious than silver or gold.

I am confident, encouraged and strengthened by the assurance that, having walked faithfully with the Lord throughout your life, you have gone to a place where pain, sorrow and suffering have no more dominion. You have entered into the glorious rest prepared for those who faithfully serve God.

I remember how, whenever you officiated at the funeral of a parishioner, you often referred to the words of the Apostle Paul in Philippians 1:21:

"For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain."
You also reminded us of Romans 14:8:

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's."

Today, those words have taken on an even deeper meaning for me. You lived for Christ, and you have now gained eternal rest in Him. The faith you preached and the hope you offered to others have become the very words that strengthen us in this hour.

My lord, my husband, my friend and companion, as you embark on this glorious journey, you have left a great vacuum in our lives. Yet, we trust that the Holy Spirit will fill that vacuum and do for us what no human being can do. We will hold firmly to your final counsel: "Pray." We will continue to pray, trust God and remain steadfast in the faith you lived and taught us.

Rest peacefully, my beloved.
Rest from your labour.
Your earthly assignment is complete.

May your soul find eternal rest with your Creator, until we meet again at the feet of Jesus.

Adieu, my pastor.
Adieu, my lord.
Adieu, my beloved husband.

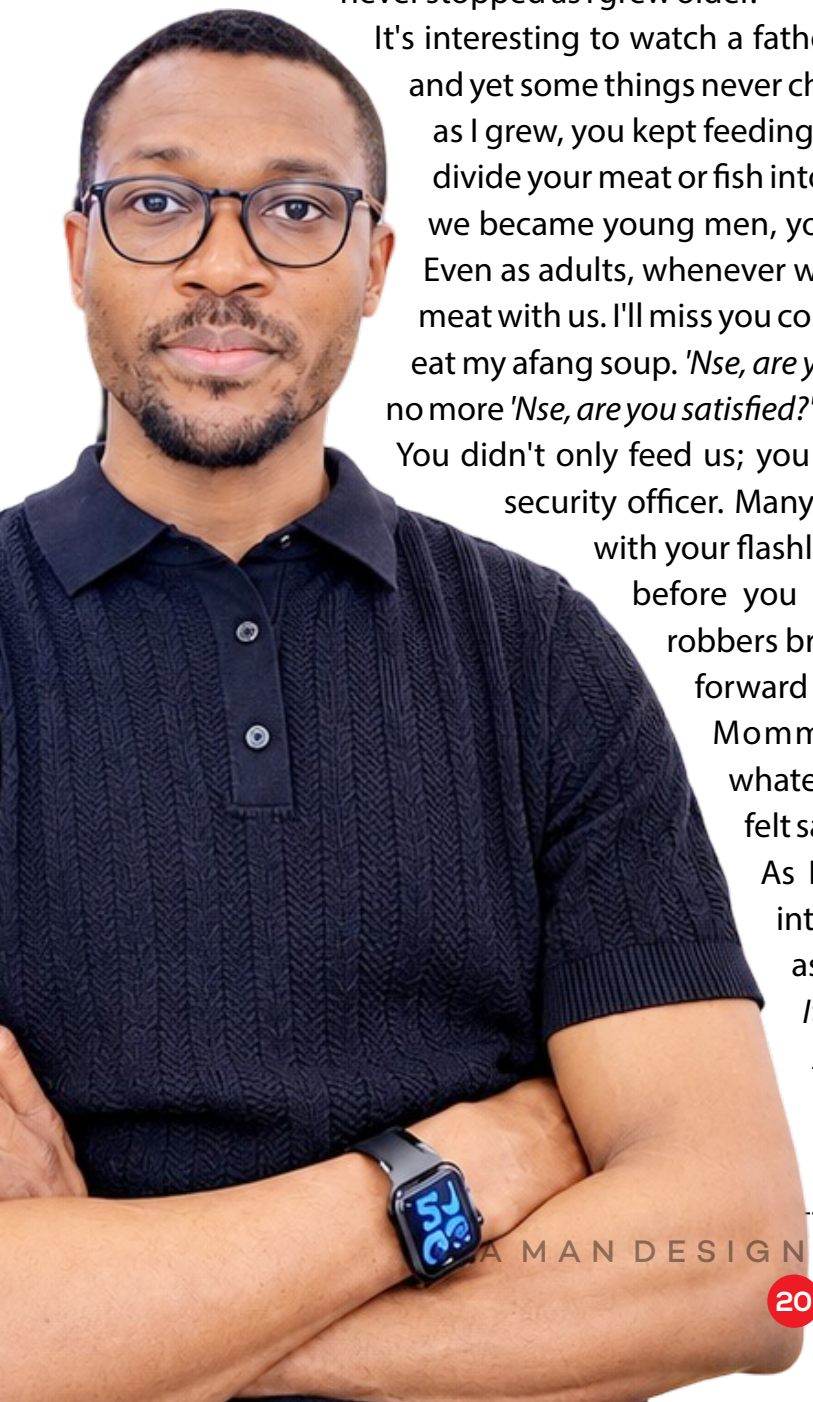
Your loving wife,
Adiaha-Adiaha

NSE AMA: 29 YEARS WITH MY FATHER

A Tribute to My Sweet Father, Most Rev. Usang Iso

If you were to ask me, I would say I wasn't ready to write this tribute just yet. I was hoping we would grow a bit older together, make a few more memories, disagree on a few more points, and celebrate a few more wins. Alas, here we are!

One of my earliest memories is a story I grew up hearing so often: whenever Mommy came to visit us at your distant mission stations, she would find me fast 'asleep' right there at the dinning table, my food still in front of me. She worried, but you would only smile. You knew all too well that I wasn't asleep at all I was tired of eating and simply pretending. You paid attention to every little detail when I was a baby, and you never stopped as I grew older.



It's interesting to watch a father-son relationship grow over the years, and yet some things never change. You fed me as a baby in Itigidi, and as I grew, you kept feeding me. You would call my brothers and me, divide your meat or fish into four, and feed each of us yourself. When we became young men, you asked us to pick a piece each instead. Even as adults, whenever we visited, you never forgot to share your meat with us. I'll miss you coming to the dining table just to watch me eat my afang soup. 'Nse, are you satisfied?' you would always ask. Now, no more 'Nse, are you satisfied?' questions for me.

You didn't only feed us; you watched over us as our very own chief security officer. Many nights, you would go round the house with your flashlight, making sure every door was locked before you finally went to bed. The night armed robbers broke into the house, you bravely stepped forward to face them. You told them not to touch Mommy, and that you would give them whatever they wanted. Even as a man, I always felt safe with you.

As I grew older, your watchfulness turned into support. In my WASSCE days, you were as faithful as an alarm clock: 'Nse, wake up. It's 2:30 AM. You asked me to wake you at 2:30.' You never stopped me from seeing the world. You would simply ask, 'Which transport company are you using, and when are you leaving?' Then you would stay up until I arrived safely, or come to the bus park in the middle of the night to bring me home. What a father!

Then, somewhere along the way, our roles began to change. You went from asking me, 'Are you a doctor?' to calling me 'my doctor'. My questions never ended ('Daddy, describe the pain. When did it start?'), and you would say, 'Eyen, mbok leave me alone ooo… all I can tell you is that it is paining me.' When my endless exams overwhelmed me, you listened to me complain, then reminded me that God is my 'ever present help', and that 'the same God who saw others through, will also see me through'. What a man of faith!

To so many, you were their pastor; to me, you were both father and pastor. I miss those Sundays when I came to the vestry after service to take your sweat-soaked cassock and big black Bible. On your pastoral visits, my greatest delight was how you prayed, always in your element. Up till your passing, I looked forward to kneeling while you laid your hands on my head and prayed for me. Those prayers will cover me for life. Etubom Usang Iso, you'll be missed.

You know, whenever I hear the words of consecration at Mass, I remember you saying those same words at the Holy Communion service, and again I'm reminded of blissful moments that now live on as memories in me. What a joy to know that you've joined the great cloud of witnesses Scripture talks about!

So, Daddy, as you so often prayed over me, let me now pray over you:

Rev. Usang Iso, the Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord make His face shine upon you, and be gracious to you;
The Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace.

Rev. Usang Iso, may the Lord, whom you so fervently and wholeheartedly served, receive you into His eternal rest, my sweet dear Father, my Nse ama.

These few pages are grossly inadequate for our twenty-nine-year story, so I'll save the rest for my children's and grandchildren's bedtime stories. And if you were to ask me one last time, 'Nse, are you satisfied?' I would say, 'Yes, Daddy. I am.'

Until we meet again, - Your beloved Nse-Nse.

Tribute to a Loving Father

"Oh Papeh, His Royal Majesty, how are you, my son? How is work going?" he would often ask.
"Daddy, I am fine. What of you?"
"I'm okay ooo, I'm okay, my son."

You always cared about others more than yourself. You were very, very loving and kind, a peaceful father, and an avid writer and reader.

You would always tell me to work and study hard. You were always happy whenever you saw me, and you would tell me, "My son, you are doing well. Of all my children, you have no problem, and I am never worried." You would praise me and encourage me to do my best.

I remember very vividly how you called me before you went for your surgery and said, "My son, don't fear. God willing, I will go and I will come back." And God brought you out of the operating room successfully, and we were so happy.

Oh! Daddy, this wasn't the plan. This definitely wasn't the plan.

When I came back home, we talked about how happy you were that I was doing well and had settled down so fast after my youth service.

I feel so empty on so many days when I know that I won't hear your voice again.

Oh, my loving father, who would call me 'His Royal Majesty'; who would pray for me and hug me, and we would both cry and miss each other whenever I was travelling away from home; who would ask me to walk with you round the compound, smiling so beautifully while asking about my wellbeing.

No matter how difficult things became, you always encouraged me and stood by me. No matter what I did, or how I offended or wronged you, you always forgave me and welcomed me back with open arms. You never stopped praying for your children and your family.

You were such a good cook, and such a clean, fine man. With a smile on your face, you would hold me and tell me stories about your youthful days, giving me so many memories and stories to last a lifetime. And how can I forget your wonderful handwriting, writing so perfect we all got envious of you?

I love you, Dad. I sat endlessly trying to put my thoughts into words, and I'm lost for words. I don't think words can express how devastated I feel knowing that you are no more. I am only encouraged that you are in a better place, resting and enjoying what you loved the most. I am well assured that you are with the host of angels, singing hosanna in heaven.

Fly safe, my lovely father.
Fly safe till we meet again.

Your lovely Son,
NTOE DE KING

A Tribute to My Father, Teacher, Provider, Protector, and above all else, My Friend

My handsome young man, my beloved father, my very own name sake, certainly, this was not the plan. Remember our last conversion in June when I visited home, we agreed you would stick around for 10 -15 years at least. We also agreed to throw a huge celebration in October to commemorate 30 years of you and mum's happy marriage, and 3 years of a successful prostate surgery. Mummy made uniform suggestions and you talked about details of the event. In all our plans, there was no mention of a burial. Quite dramatic of you to bail out on us like this I must say.

Anyways, I forgive you. I also understand. The truth is no earthly thanksgiving or celebration would compare to the heavenly one you, the angels, and other saints in Heaven are engaging in, singing; Hosanna in the highest.

Daddy, I miss you so so much. It's been a couple of months since you left and I think about you everyday. Sometimes I even mimic your mannerisms, the way you talk, how you pray, sing or even reprimand us. Your words are deeply ingrained in my heart and I carry your presence everywhere I go.

You were so good, kind, and totally upright. Such a fine and complete man. The type that strives for peace and fairness in all situations. You taught us to be respectful, obedient, to cherish hard work, and be diligent in all we do, to have integrity and give generously, to love God and pray always. You and mum taught us everything we know.

Daddy, who would call me those sweet names that made me blush every time. Who would boast about me to everyone that I am your replica. Who would pray for me just the way you did- holding my hands, mouth in my face, making powerful declarations and prophesies over my life. Who would encourage and cheer me any time I felt down. Who would bless me with a father's blessing and tell me "Koko dear, save your money".

Mummy misses you a lot, she misses you every single day. Nse, Asi, Ntoe, Aunty Rose, Aunty Ma-ba, Uncle Koko Nya, Barr Iso, your brothers, sisters, nephews, nieces, friends, neighbours, the Ntino's, your parishioners and the congregations you pastored, everyone who knew you, loved you and miss you deeply.

Continue to rest deeply in the arms of your loving Father. Continue to intercede, pray and guide us. For even though you may be gone in flesh, I am confident that we all will meet one day in a place where there is no pain, sorrow, or tears.

Sleep well my handsome young man. God bless your beautiful soul and I will always love you.

Your loving son,

Usang Usang Iso

A TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED UNCLE

Your passing is a great reminder of how precious life is and how deeply it touches those around us.
Though words may not fully express this loss, your memory will forever remain a part of our family's story.
You will be remembered with the Love, Honor and Respect.
May the Almighty grant your soul eternal rest.
Rest peacefully dear uncle until we meet again in eternity.

A Tribute To My Uncle

Some goodbyes are difficult to put into words, and some losses remind us of how precious the gift of life truly is. Though your time with us has come to an end, your memory will remain a part of us.
Life may be fleeting, but the impact of a life lived is never forgotten.
As we say goodbye, may you find everlasting peace beyond this world.
Sleep well, dear uncle, May your soul rest in eternal peace.

A TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED BROTHER

WHEN life ends Love don't.
Greater Love Conquers death.
My heart physically hurts when I think about the fact that you are gone. Oh death what is thy purpose? Death you are wicked to snatch away my dearly beloved brother from me.I take consolation from the book of Ecclesias 3:1 which says "To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the earth."
Your departure from me is indeed painful, but I'm comforted by the fact that there is no error in Him, the all-knowing God who knows the end from the beginning. Life is a testimony for us to be diligent, to strive for excellence, to be at peace with all men, to show kindness and empathy to others, to be and remain focused, have integrity and be honest, above all, live to save others.

Life, we understand is not fair
Life, we understand has many meanings
Life, we understand carries many values and
Life, we understand has many juices.
Life is a journey of tales. It's script is written by the unknown. Word is a memory we'll live with.
I pray you have the best eternity and smooth journey to our Father in heaven. This exit is painful and my heart is bleeding. This realm is over and I hope we meet at the other side across the bridge where we part no more.
The Song Ended.
But the Melody lingers.

MY HEARTFELT CONDOLENCES

Dear Barrister Asi Iso,
Please accept our heartfelt condolences on the passing of your beloved father, Most Rev. Usang Iso. We can only imagine the pain of losing a father whose life, love, wisdom, and legacy have made such an impact.
May the Almighty God comfort you and your entire family during this difficult time. May He grant you the strength to bear this painful loss and the grace to find peace in the beautiful memories and enduring legacy your father has left behind.
May the soul of Most Rev. Usang Iso rest in perfect peace, and may God uphold the entire family with His unfailing love.
Please accept our deepest sympathy. May God comfort you all. Amen.

Condolence Message

We extend our heartfelt condolences to Mrs Edisua Usang Iso., the children, and the extended family on the passing of Reverend Usang Iso. We heard with sadness the demise of our dear friend and brother, he may be gone from our physical presence, but his legacy lives on and we will always remember him fondly with pleasant memories because of the joy that permeates his face every time we met and the kindness and love that flowed abundantly from him without any hesitation or inhibition.

As a child of God we know that he is in a better place at the bosom of the Lord, as a good and faithful servant of the Lord who ran a good race and completed the race, we know he will be rewarded in heaven for his labor and for his good deeds.

To the family, may God's love continue to surround you, and may the good Lord continue to strengthen you through this painful period in Jesus name.
Amen.

TRIBUTE TO MY UNCLE, MY HERO, MY FIRST BELIEVER MOST REV, USANG ISO (RTD)

How do I write a tribute to a man who was everything to me?

My uncle was not just an uncle. He was my friend. He was my covering. He was one of the first people in this world to believe in me, long before I had any reason to be believed in.

Everyone gathered here knows him as Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd) – a big name, respected name, a name that carried honor in the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria. A man who rose to the highest office and retired honorably from Ediba Qua Presbytery.

But I knew him before the titles. I knew him when it was just a dream, a call, and a very rough road.

I remember clearly when he decided to answer the call of God to become a Reverend in the Presbyterian Church. It was not an easy decision.

I witnessed the challenges; I witnessed the frustrations. The years of training that tested his patience. The postings to difficult parishes. The sacrifices that ministry demands. The days when the allowance was small, but the work was big.

And I remember the people who did not believe in him. Some in the church, some outside. They whispered that he would not last. They doubted his calling. They thought he had chosen a path that would lead nowhere.

If they had told him to his face, he would have just smiled. Because my uncle knew how to turn insult into prayer and frustration into faithfulness.

He did not fight anyone. He did not argue. He did just kept serving God. He preached when the church was full and when it was empty. He prayed for others when he himself needed prayer. He remained faithful when it was not fashionable to be faithful.

And God, who sees in the secret, rewarded him openly.

The same young man they doubted became a Parish Minister. Became a leader. Became a father to many Pastors. And before he retired, the Almighty God lifted him to the peak – Most Reverend (Rtd). The highest position. The crown of his ministerial journey.

What a life! What a testimony that God never fails!

If you did not believe in him at the beginning, you had no choice but to celebrate him at the end. That was the life of Most Rev. Usang Iso Rtd. A man designed by Grace.

And yet, through all that elevation, through all the big titles and big honors, he never changed towards me.

I remained his Koko. His love. His boy

He was excessively fond of me from my childhood. Everyone knew it. He carried me like his own son. He spoke about me with so much pride when I had nothing to be proud of. He called me great names before I became anything. He believes in my tomorrow when my today was still small.

Reverend! You taught me that when God calls you, no man can stop you. You taught me that faithfulness is louder than noise, and that time will always vindicate a man who stays with God.

Now you have gone to rest. The pulpit you stood on the decades will miss you. Ediba Qua Parish will miss you, The Presbyterian Church will miss you, our family will miss you. And I your Koko, will miss you every day of my life, but I will not weep without hope, because you did not just preach heaven, you lived heaven. You have gone to receive your greater crown – the crown of righteousness that the Lord has prepared for you,

Rest well, Etubom

Rest well, my Reverend

Rest well, the man who believed in me first.

You fought a good fight, you finished your course, you kept the faith.

Your Koko Love, who will forever be proud to be your own nephew.

Engr. Nya Edem Essien

Tribute to my beloved Uncle

It is with heavy hearts that we say goodbye to a man who was not just our uncle, but someone who held a special and irreplaceable place in our lives.

Losing you has reminded us once again that some people leave footprints on our hearts that time can never erase. Your presence, your kindness, your words, and the memories we shared with you will remain with us for the rest of our lives.

As your nieces, we are grateful for the moments we had with you. We may not have said everything we felt while you were here, but please know that you were loved, appreciated, and deeply cherished.

Your passing is painful, and there are no perfect words to express the emptiness your absence has created. But even in our grief, we choose to remember your life with gratitude. We will hold on to the beautiful memories, the lessons, the laughter, and every moment that made you a part of our story.

And as we say goodbye to you, there is one thought that brings us a little comfort: you are going home to those who went before you. Please, when you see our beloved parents, give them all our love. Tell them that we miss them every single day, that we carry their memories with us, and that the love they gave us continues to live in our hearts.

We like to imagine that, somewhere beyond this life, you are reunited with them—together again, sharing memories, laughter, and the love that bound you as family.

From both of us, we say thank you, Uncle. Thank you for being a part of our lives and for the memories you left behind.

Though you are no longer here with us, your memory will live on in our hearts. We pray that God grants you eternal rest and gives the entire family the strength and comfort to bear this painful loss.

Rest peacefully in God's bosom Uncle. Until we meet again.
You will be deeply missed, fondly remembered, and forever loved.

With love,
Your nieces,
Thelma & Elizabeth

TRIBUTE TO A BELOVED UNCLE

It is difficult to come to terms with the reality that you are no longer with us. The thought that I will no longer see you, hear your voice, or benefit from your wise counsel is truly heartbreaking. Yet, in the midst of this pain, I find comfort in the knowledge that life is in God's hands.

Life, indeed, is like a flower that blossoms in the morning but fades away with the rising sun. It is a fleeting phase, passing like the wind, reminding us of the fragility and uncertainty of human existence. Though our time on earth is limited, the memories we create, the lives we touch, and the love we share remain long after we are gone.

Oh, how I will miss your advice, your guidance, your wisdom, and the many ways you contributed to our lives! You were more than an uncle; you were a source of direction, a voice of wisdom, and a pillar of unity in our family. As our amiable convener at family meetings, you played a special role in bringing us together, and your presence will be greatly missed. The vacuum your departure has created is one that words can hardly describe.

Though my heart is heavy with grief, I am consoled by the understanding that life is a gift from God. We did nothing to earn it, and when the time comes for us to return it to the Giver, we can only bow in humility to His sovereign will.

Dear Uncle, your departure may have taken you away from our sight, but it can never erase the impact you made or the precious memories you have left in our hearts. Your words, counsel, and contributions to our family will continue to speak long after your departure. You have left behind a legacy of love, wisdom, and togetherness that we will always cherish.
Rest on, beloved uncle, and servant of God. Though we mourn your departure, we are grateful for the privilege of having shared a part of life's journey with you.
Adieu, my amiable uncle. You will be deeply missed, fondly remembered, and forever cherished.
May your gentle soul rest in perfect peace. Amen.

TO MOST REVEREND USANG ISO

Tribute to a great Man

Words alone cannot sufficiently express my perception of this great man. Yes, Most Reverend USANG ISO, my father, was a great man, a rare breed , a unifier and my prime benefactor.

I am a lawyer today because God chose him as the vessel through which I was called to the Nigerian bar, 25 years ago ..

He supported me in need (financially) and in deed from my first year in the university through to law school. He singlehandedly paid my law school fees in full and travelled all the way to Abuja with his wife who was pregnant then to honor me at the event of my call to the Nigerian bar ceremony in 2001.

If I continue to eulogise him the way I know him, I will have to write over a thousand pages here .

He was always there for my parents and siblings.

The least I could do to honor this great man was to name my first son Usang , after him...

Most Reverend USANG ISO was a shining light , a steadfast guide who left his indelible footprints on the sands of time.

He selflessly imparts wisdom, provides guidance and unwavering source of support to so many.

May the Almighty God accept his gentle soul and grant his family the fortitude to bear this irreplaceable loss.

Amen!

Bar. Bassey Iso

Dcns. Salem Bassey Essien.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE.

We the leadership and entire members of Shiloh Christian Family International Fellowship received the news of the demise of your elder brother; Most Rev. Usang Iso with sadness but without losing sight of the scriptures in Ecclesiastes 3vs1-2 as Christians and also the fact that God has the final say given all the prayers we said for him whenever we gathered.

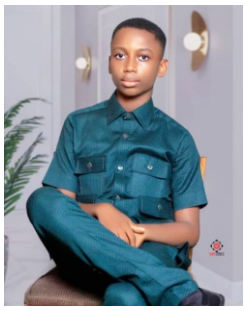
The death of a loved one is painful but take solace our beloved in the fact that our beloved Reverend has simply left this wicked world for a better place with his master.

Our dear visionary, be consoled; God's servant is now free from all pains and sorrow.

As you prepare for the funeral rites and interment, we pray that the good Lord will continue to comfort you and the entire family and also grant you the strength to go through the pain of this period and ultimately heal your broken hearts even as the soul of the faithful departed finds eternal rest in Him. AMEN

TRIBUTE TO MY WISE MAN

Reverend, it is so sad to tell you good-bye. You have always been in an advisory position to me; how to pray, how-to live-in obedience and respect, how to love God for myself. I thank God for putting a patriarch like you in my life, but nothing under the sun lasts forever. Thank you for giving me the right upbringing, the right walking posture. Thank you for teaching me how to be strong even through problems arising. You taught not only me but our family to have extreme faith in God. You gave so selflessly of your time, your heart, and your spiritual strength to everyone who crossed your path. Even in the quiet moments, your presence was a constant reminder of God's love and protection.



Though we grieve your physical absence, your legacy does not end here. It lives on in the lives you touched, the souls you guided to Christ, the seeds you planted, and the values of faith, love, and integrity you instilled in us.

Rest on, my dear uncle. Rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord until that golden morning when we shall meet to part no more.

Adieu Reverend Usang Iso.

With all my love and eternal gratitude,

Your Nephew, - Roy Archibong Nya-Edem

TRIBUTE TO MY DEAR IN-LAW.

Today, I find it difficult to put my feelings into words as I pay tribute to a man who was more than an in-law to me. You were a father, a guide, a source of strength, and a blessing to my life. You came into our family as an in-law, but you chose to love, care for, and support me as your own daughter. You filled a special place in my heart that words can hardly describe. Your kindness, wisdom, encouragement, and generosity made me feel the love and protection of a father. You were always there to offer advice, show concern, and provide support whenever it was needed.

You taught me, through your actions, that family is not only about blood relations but also about love, sacrifice, understanding, and acceptance. Your presence brought comfort and joy, and your words of wisdom will forever remain in my heart. I am deeply grateful to God for giving me the opportunity to know you and experience your fatherly love.

Indeed Rev. Usang Iso is a devoted minister of the Gospel, a loving family man, and a beacon of integrity. Throughout his ministerial life, he lived an exemplified Christ-like character. He counseled the hurting, strengthened the weak, and led many to Christ.

His dedication to God's work and to his family will forever be remembered. Though death has taken you away from our sight, it can never erase the beautiful memories you left behind. Your good deeds, your kindness, and the love you showed me and everyone will continue to speak for you for generations to come.

As we bid farewell to Rev. Usang Iso, we take comfort in knowing he fought the good fight, finished the race, and kept the faith. If I had the power to bring you back, I would gladly do so, because people like you are rare blessings. You were not just an in-law; you were a father in every sense of my understanding. I will continue to cherish and honour the wonderful person you were. You came into our family as an In-law, but you left an everlasting mark as a father.

You may be gone from this world in flesh, but In divine Spirit of God you will never be forgotten. Rest Peacefully, My dear In-law in the Bossom of our Lord Jesus Christ. Your life was a blessing, Your memory is a treasure, and you will forever remain in Our Heart. May Your soul rest in Perfect Peace, And May Your Legacy Continue to Inspire Generations..

Adieu Rev. Usang Iso.

TRIBUTE TO A GREAT FATHER, TUTOR AND INSPIRATION

REV. USANG ISO — A LIFE OF LOVE AND SACRIFICE

Some people come into our lives and leave footprints that time and death cannot erase. Rev. Usang Iso was one such rare soul—a loving father, dedicated tutor, inspiring mentor, and a deep blessing to the UBANAS.

He was a man whose life reflected a strong sense of welfare consciousness, administrative excellence, and selfless sacrifice. He understood that true leadership was not merely about holding a position but about caring for people, putting their welfare first, and making personal sacrifices for their good.

One memory I will forever cherish is his habit of refusing to take his breakfast until I arrived. He would fondly call me "My Son" and patiently wait for me. Those simple words and gestures carried a depth of love and fatherly affection that I can never forget. They made me feel valued, accepted, and genuinely cared for.

His care for me extended beyond words. I own a driver's licence today because he took the initiative to get one for me. This was more than a practical gesture; it was an investment in my future, a demonstration of his belief in me, and a testament to the kind of father and mentor he was.

Rev. Usang Iso did not just teach with words; he taught through his actions. His concern for others, his administrative wisdom, and his willingness to sacrifice for those around him remain enduring lessons for all who knew him.

Etubom, your departure has left a painful void in our hearts. My family - the UBANAS will forever remember your invaluable contributions to our wellbeing.

Thank you for your love, your guidance, your sacrifices, and the lasting impact you made on my life. Though you are no longer physically with us, the memories you created and the lives you touched will continue to speak for you.

Rest well, Etubom. You were a blessing in life, and your legacy of love, service, and sacrifice will remain with us forever.

Adieu, Sir. I will always cherish the privilege of being the son you fondly called "My Son."You will be deeply missed, but never forgotten.

Your Son & family
THE UBANAS

Tribute to My Brother In Law

Today we celebrate a life well spent in the service of God and humanity.

You were a humble, peaceful and God-fearing man. As a minister, you were committed to the work of God.

We will miss your wise counsel, your prayers, and gentle smile.

We pray that God in His infinite mercy will grant your soul eternal rest.

Adieu, Man of God.Till we meet at Jesus' feet.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

I write on behalf of the General Assembly and the entire Presbyterian Church of Nigeria to commiserate with you and your entire family on the home call of our retired Minister, your beloved husband, late Most Rev. Usang Iso.

Most Rev. Usang Iso was indeed a man designed by grace and an icon of faith. He served the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria faithfully, meritoriously, with uncommon dedication and commitment throughout his years of active ministry as a Parish Minister. He was a true shepherd, a teacher of the Word, and a father to many Ministers and members alike.

His legacies of humility, integrity, fearless preaching of the gospel, sound pastoral care and selfless service to God and humanity will remain indelible in our Church. He fought the good fight, he kept the faith, and he finished his course. Though we mourn his exit at this time, we give glory to God for a life well spent in the vineyard of the Lord.

We pray that the God of all grace, will comfort, strengthen, uphold and sustain you, the children, and all who mourn his death. May the cherished memories of his love, kindness, godly counsel, and unwavering commitment bring you immense comfort and peace during this time of grief.

Please accept our heartfelt condolences. May his gentle soul find eternal repose in the bosom of the Lord, Amen.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

It is with a deep sense of loss but with total submission to the sovereign will of Almighty God, that I received the news of the glorious transition to eternity of your beloved husband, father and respected elder statesman, MOST REV. USANG ISO (RtD) who went to be with the Lord on Tuesday, 28th July 2026 after a prolonged illness at the age of 72.

Late Most Rev. Usang Iso, was a rare gem – a distinguished educationist, an accomplished clergyman, and a highly revered community leader who devoted the greater part of his productive years to the service of God and humanity and to the development of our dear Cross River State.

As rightly noted, his early life of service was in the classroom. He served our State meritoriously as a Classroom teacher and as a Vice Principal in several schools across the State. He was among the generation of teachers who saw teaching not just as a job but as a calling, molding lives, instilling discipline and building character. His decision to voluntarily resign from the teaching profession to devote himself fully to Christian ministry in the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria speaks volumes of his love for God and his commitment to the propagation of the Gospel.

Until his retirement from active ministerial service in September 2022, shortly before his health challenges became debilitating, he served faithfully and left behind a legacy of dedicated service to the Church and society. Until his passing, he remained steadfast in faith, a man of integrity, discipline, trustworthiness, humility and dedication, whose life was defined by service to God, the Church, his family and community. His contributions as an educationist and minister of the Gospel truly touched many lives across the State and beyond.

You and your husband walked together in faith and service and I can only imagine how deep this loss is to you personally, to your children, to the immediate and extended Iso family and to the entire Presbyterian Church of Nigeria family.

On behalf of my dear wife, Her Excellency, Bishop Dr. Eyoanwan Bassey Otu, my family, the Government and the good people of Cross River State, I extend my heartfelt and sincerest condolences to you and your entire family and pray for the peaceful repose of his soul.

Please accept our heartfelt condolences.

Dear Eld Hon Mrs Edisua Iso, PhD,

MESSAGE OF CONDOLENCE

On behalf of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, we extend our heartfelt condolences to you and your entire family on the passing of your husband and head of household, Rev. Usang Ekpenyong Iso, who was a retired Minister of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria. We thank God for Rev. Iso's faithful service and lasting contributions to the Church. His ministry stands as a testament to his faith and commitment to Christ, and his legacy will continue to inspire future generations.

Though his passing brings sorrow, we find comfort in God's promises. Our Lord Jesus Christ assures us that He has gone to prepare a place for His own (John 14:1–3). This gives us hope that death is not the end but the doorway to eternal life in Christ's presence. Rev. Iso has completed his earthly journey and fulfilled the service entrusted to him. As we mourn, may we be encouraged by Scripture: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord … that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them" (Revelation 14:13).

We pray Almighty God will comfort and strengthen you, his entire family, the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, the Qua nation and all who mourn his demise. May the Holy Spirit grant you all grace to bear this loss with faith, courage, and hope in Christ. May our beloved father in the Lord rest in perfect peace until we meet again in glory.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit remain with the family and the entire Church. Amen.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

I received with deep sadness the news of the passing of Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.), a devoted servant of God, distinguished educationist and community leader whose life was defined by faith, discipline, humility and service to humanity.

His transition at the age of 72 is undoubtedly a painful loss, not only to his immediate family but also to the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, the educational community and the many people whose lives he touched through decades of teaching, ministry and selfless service.

There is consolation, however, in the testimony of the life he lived. He gave his years to moulding young minds and, thereafter, answered the higher call to dedicate himself fully to the service of God. Such a life leaves footprints that death cannot erase.

To his beloved wife, children and the entire Iso family, I extend my deepest and most heartfelt condolences. As you mourn a husband, father, brother and patriarch, may you find strength in the values he represented, the lives he impacted and the cherished memories he leaves behind.

I pray that Almighty God, whom he faithfully served, will receive him into eternal rest and grant the entire family the grace and fortitude to bear this great loss.

May the gentle soul of Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.) rest in perfect peace. Amen.

OUR SINCERE CONDOLENCES

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Saints, Psalms 116:15

The Calabar Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria received with rude shock the devastating news of the sudden death of your dear husband, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.) , *a Saint triumphant.

We recall with nostalgia that the late Rev. Usang Iso, as fondly called, was a renowned Minister of our dear Church who served the Church wholeheartedly and retired meritoriously; a committed Minister with unassuming humility, Minister of the word and Counsellor of God's flock. He was indeed a gallant soldier of Christ, a great pillar of strength and confidant to the family he loved with passion. He was an asset to the PCN indeed, his healthy contributions and lofty ideas for the growth of the church will be greatly missed. He lived and died a Conqueror. How are the mighty fallen!

Rev. Usang Iso's departure at such a time as this no doubt has created a vacuum which words and tears cannot fill, only God can. Our prayers, therefore, is that the God of all comfort will comfort you and give you great strength to pull through this trying time. Life is indeed very cruel, and death is a coward. For only cowards take up their victims unaware.

We equally implore you to note that death is not the end of life but only a passage to another life and that we shall all meet again with your dear husband someday if we faint not. It is indeed a triumphant exit!

From all of us at Calabar Synod, please accept our deepest sympathy in this moment of grief.
May his gentle soul rest in perfect peace. Amen.

HEARTFELT CONDOLENCES

The Moderator, Rt. Rev. Ofonime A. Udoh and indeed the entire members of The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, Akwa Synod heartily commiserate with you and family on the demise of your beloved husband, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd) whose sad event occurred on Tuesday July 28th, 2026 at the age of 72 years.

Death remains an inevitable end to all mortal beings here on earth, hence no one has the power over how, where or when it occurs, except God, our Maker.

We sincerely sympathize with you and your entire family over this painful loss of such a very important person in your life, family, and the church in general.

We know that it is always painful to lose a loved one no matter the age. Indeed a vacuum has been created in the family and a responsibility on your shoulder which may be difficult to fill but we believe that God in His mercy and grace will provide the needed succor to you and the rest of your family members in times of need.

As a Christian, we urge you to be physically and spiritually strong in a trying time like this so that you may stand out as an epitome of courage and inspiration to other members of your family.

It is our fervent prayer that the good Lord will grant you the fortitude to bear this irreplaceable loss of your beloved husband. May He also grant you the grace not only to imbibe but also to sustain those precious legacies which your beloved husband has left behind.

May God rest his soul and comfort all he has left behind to mourn this painful loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and family. Please, accept our heartfelt condolences.

TRIBUTE TO A GREAT PATRIARCH, SOLDIER OF CHRIST: LATE MOST REV. USANG E. ISO (RTD)

"Well done, good and faithful servant. Enter into the joy of your Lord."— Matthew 25:21

Today, we gather with heavy hearts yet abiding hope to honour the life and legacy of our beloved fallen Christ's Soldier; a Man of Extravagant Grace - Most Rev Usang Iso Rtd.

While our hearts ache from pain of this parting, we rejoice in the assurance that he traded earthly labour for eternal rest in the presence of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Most Rev Usang Iso was more than a leader—he was a true shepherd of the fold, a steady pillar in times of storm, and a quiet champion of grace. Whether from the pulpit, in a quiet hospital room, or sitting across a desk offering gentle counsel, his life was an open testament to the love of Christ.

We remember:

* The warmth of his smile and the genuine compassion extended to every person who crossed his path.
* The countless hours spent in prayer, studying the Word, and standing in the gap for this Church Family and Community.
* The way he walked with us through our highest joys and held our hands through our deepest valleys, always pointing us back to the Cross of Christ.
* A heart that modeled humility, patience, and a relentless passion for the gospel.

Though his voice is silent here, the seeds of faith, kindness, and truth planted in our lives will continue to bear fruit for generations to come. Your race is run, dear Patriarch; you have fought the good fight and has kept the faith.

Yes, "we do not grieve as those who have no hope" (1 Thessalonians 4:13).

Rest peacefully in the arms of the Master you served so faithfully. You will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and never forgotten.

Rest until we meet again.

Dear Elder and Family,

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE ON THE GLORIOUS TRANSITION OF LATE MOST REV. USANG ISO (RTD.)

The Session and entire congregation of The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, Big Qua Town Parish, Calabar received with profound shock and deep sorrow the notification of the glorious transition of your beloved husband, father and our dear father in the Lord, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.), who was called to glory on Tuesday, 28th July, 2026 at the age of 72.

We mourn, yet we submit in total humility to the sovereign will of Almighty God. We thank God for a life well spent in His vineyard.

To us at Big Qua Town Parish, his death is a very personal loss. Late Most Rev. Iso was a one-time Parish Minister in our church and shepherded this flock with love, wisdom and dedication. He was more than a minister to us; he was a father, a teacher and a mentor. Many of us will never forget his characteristic and affectionate opening address, "Dear Friends," with which he always began his sermons and exhortations. That simple phrase captured his warmth, humility and deep love for God's people.

As a distinguished educationist, clergyman and community leader, he served meritoriously as a classroom teacher and Vice Principal before resigning to devote himself fully to Christian ministry. Until his retirement in September 2022, he remained steadfast in faith, a man of integrity, discipline and dedication whose ministry touched countless lives within the Church and across Cross River State.

His vacuum will be hard to fill, but his legacy of faith, his voice saying "Dear Friends" and his selfless service will continue to live on in our hearts.

On behalf of the Session, we extend our heartfelt condolences to you, the children and the entire Iso family. We pray that the God of all comfort will comfort you, strengthen you, and grant you the fortitude to bear this irreparable loss.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord... they will rest from their labour, for their deeds will follow them." - Revelation 14:13

My Dear Sister

MESSAGE OF CONDOLENCE

As it pleases the Lord Almighty to call to His eternal glory, His dear son and faithful Servant, your beloved husband and a wonderful father of all, Most Reverend Usang Iso (Rtd.), I deeply mourn with you and your entire family, given this sad incident.

Really I sympathize with you all, knowing the fact that this has ended up all about this great man of God who was a pillar in your family, and devoted his life to served our Creator and humanity selflessly.

Of the truth, Most Reverend Iso clearly defined his role in the vineyard of the Lord, and worked to the best of his abilities to live in tandem with the tenets of his calling.

There is no gainsaying that he touched lives and brought many to see the light in Christ Jesus through his ministry, justifying the fact that he was actually called to served in the sacred altar of the Most High God.

To say that we will missed him is an understatement, for all about our Most Reverend Iso is indelible.

Acknowledging that his transition has negatively affected you, your family, the Church and Community at large, my thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Therefore, on behalf of the rest of our very empathetic brethren in Calabar Municipality/Odukpani Federal Constituency, I share in this grief, request that our revered father' soul should enjoy everlasting repose, and the fortitude to bear this huge loss be granted to us all.

Dear Edisua,

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE OF MOST REV. USANG ISO (RTD)

On behalf of my family and myself, I wish to convey our heartfelt condolences on the glorious home-call of our family friend, Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.).

The news of his passing, though painful, is a celebration of a life truly well spent in the service of God and humanity.

Most Rev. Iso was a rare gift to this generation. A man who truly loved and served God throughout his pilgrimage on earth, shepherding God's flock with wisdom, grace, and unwavering devotion.

His life was a profound testament to faith, integrity, discipline, and selfless service. As a family friend, his counsel was wise, his presence comforting, and his example inspiring. I recall with fondness how much joy and laughter he epitomized; his warmth and cheerful spirit had a way of lighting up every room and every heart he encountered.

His legacies in the classroom, in the pulpit, and in our lives will continue to live on.

We pray that the Almighty God will grant his noble soul eternal rest in His bosom and grant his beloved family, the Presbyterian Church, and all who mourn him the strength and fortitude to bear this great loss.

He has fought the good fight, he has finished his course, he has kept the faith.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

It is with profound sorrow that I, on behalf of the Management and staff of the Ministry of Women Affairs, Cross River State, extend our heartfelt condolences to you on the passing of your beloved husband, Most Rev. Usang Iso (Ph.D), who passed on to glory on Tuesday, 29th July, 2026, at the age of 72 years, after a prolonged illness.

The Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd) was a devoted servant of God who served the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria with dedication, commitment and distinction throughout his years of active Ministry. Before fully dedicating himself to the work of God, he served as a school principal, demonstrating his commitment to education and the development of young minds. His voluntary resignation from education service to embrace full-time Ministry reflected his deep faith, conviction, and dedication to answering the call of God.

His life was devoted to the service of God, the church and humanity. His contributions to education and Christian Ministry remain a worthy legacy of selfless service, faith and godly leadership.

Although his passing leaves a painful void in the hearts of his family, the church and all who knew him, his exemplary life and contributions will continue to inspire generations. His transition to glory marks the end of his earthly journey, but the legacy he leaves behind will remain indelible.

At this difficult time of grief, we pray that Almighty God will comfort you and your family, strengthen you in your moments of sorrow, and grant you the fortitude to bear this irreparable loss. May the precious memories of a life well spent bring you comfort, and may his gently soul rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord.

Dearest Elder Hon Edisua,

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE ON THE PASSING OF LATE MOST REV. USANG ISO (RTD)

It was with deep shock and profound sadness that we received on behalf of the Executive Chairman of Calabar Municipality, Bishop Rt. Hon James Anam FCAI, the news of the glorious transition to eternity of your beloved Husband, Patriarch, Father, and General in the Lord's Vineyard, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd).

Late Most Rev. Usang Iso was not just a revered Clergyman, but a moral compass, a father to all, a peace-builder, and a true statesman whose life and ministry touched countless lives within and beyond Calabar Municipality. His retirement from active service did not diminish his zeal for God and humanity; he remained a source of wise counsel, inspiration, and spiritual guidance until his final call to glory.

His death is a great loss not only to your family and the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, but also to the entire Christian community and the good people of Calabar Municipality whom he served with utmost dedication and humility.

On behalf of the Government and good people of Calabar Municipal Local Government Area, we extend our heartfelt condolences to you and the entire Church at this moment of grief. We pray that the Almighty God will grant you the fortitude to bear this irreparable loss.

May his gentle soul find perfect peace in the bosom of the Lord, and may his legacies of faith, love, humility and selfless service continue to live on.

Please accept our deepest sympathies.

Dear Madam,

LETTER OF COMMISERATION ON THE GLORIOUS TRANSITION OF LATE MOST REV. USANG ISO (RTD.)

On behalf of the All Progressives Congress (APC), Cross River State, we extend our heartfelt condolences to you and the entire family of Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.) on his glorious transition to eternity at the age of 72.

We mourn the loss of a distinguished clergyman, educator, and community leader whose life was dedicated to the service of God, humanity, the Church, and the development of Cross River State.

His unwavering faith, integrity, humility, and commitment to Christian ministry touched many lives. Though his departure is painful, we take solace in the legacy of service and dedication he leaves behind.

At this difficult moment, we stand in solidarity with you and your family, praying that Almighty God will grant you the strength, comfort, and peace.

May the soul of Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.) rest in perfect peace.

Dear Madam,

CONDOLENCE ON THE GLORIOUS TRANSITION OF MOST REV. USANG ISO (RTD.)

It is with a profound sense of loss, yet with deep gratitude to Almighty God that we received the news of the passing of Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.).

Most Rev. Usang Iso faithfully served the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria with unwavering dedication, deep commitment, and rare distinction throughout his years of active ministry. His life was entirely devoted to the service of God, the growth of the Church, and the elevation of humanity. As a shepherd of souls, his spiritual leadership, humility, and wisdom left an indelible mark on all who had the privilege of crossing his path.

The passage of your husband came as a huge shock to me especially that we exchanged some motivational messages after prayers on the NSPPD prayer altar on the 21st of July 2026. An altar of prayer that I personally encouraged him to join. I hold dear to his final blessings, and I can authoritatively say that your husband was a true man of God. God just needed him to return home.

Though his departure leaves a massive void that will be hard to fill, we take solace in the enduring legacy of faith, integrity, and selfless service he left behind. We are comforted by the scriptural assurance that those who die in the Lord rest from their labours, and their good deeds follow them.

On behalf of my family and I, we extend our heartfelt condolences to you, the children, the extended family, the leadership and the entire congregation of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria.

We pray that the Holy Spirit, the Ultimate Comforter, will wrap His arms around you, granting you the fortitude, peace, and strength required to navigate this season of grief. May you find joy in the celebration of his remarkable and impactful life.

May his noble soul rest in perfect peace and rise in eternal glory.

In deep sympathy and prayers.

Dear Elder Hon. Mrs. Edisua Usang Iso, Ph.D.,

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

On behalf of the Qua Clans Constituted Assembly, we convey our deepest and heartfelt condolences to you, your family, the Church, and the entire community on the painful demise of your beloved husband, Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.).

The news of his passing has left us deeply saddened. His departure represents not only a profound personal loss to you and the family, but also a significant loss to the Church, the educational community, and society at large.

Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.) was a distinguished educationist, clergyman, community leader, mentor and man of uncommon service. Through his years of dedicated service, he touched countless lives, imparted knowledge, nurtured faith, promoted moral values, and contributed immensely to the growth and development of his community.

His life was a testament to the virtues of integrity, discipline, wisdom, humility, service and commitment to humanity. His contributions to education and Christian ministry, as well as his role in our community development, have left enduring footprints that will remain a source of inspiration to generations yet unborn.

As you mourn this monumental loss, we urge you to draw strength from the remarkable life he lived and the many lives he positively influenced. Though death has taken him from our midst, his legacies of knowledge, faith, leadership and service will continue to speak for him.

At this difficult moment, we pray that Almighty God will grant you, the children, the entire family and all who mourn him the fortitude to bear this irreparable loss. May God comfort your hearts, strengthen you through this period of grief, and grant the departed servant of God eternal rest in His haavenly kingdom.

Please accept the assurance of our deepest sympathy, solidarity and prayers.

May his noble soul rest in perfect peace.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

On behalf of the Executive and the entire members of men's Christians Association, Ediba Qua Parish Calabar, we write to express our deepest and most heartfelt condolences to you and your family on the passing unto glory of your beloved Husband, Father, and Patriarch Late Most Rev. Usang Iso who transited at the age of 72 years.

We received the news of his transition with great shock and deep sorrow. Late Most Rev. Usang Iso was indeed an uncommon gift to Cross River State and humanity. He was a distinguished educationist, an anointed clergyman, and a selfless community leader who devoted his entire life to the service of God, humanity, the church and the development of our dear state. His life was a true sermon, a life of integrity, scholarship, service and unwavering faith in God.

His voice of wisdom, his contributions to the educational sector, his impact in the vineyard of God, and his fatherly counsel to many will be greatly missed, not only by your family but by the entire Church and Cross River State at large.

At 72, he has fought a good fight, he has finished his course, and he has kept the faith. We take solace in the word of God which says: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." Revelation 14:13. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Psalm 116:15

We pray that the Almighty God, the Father of all comfort, will comfort you, strengthen you and the entire family he left behind.

May the Lord grant you the fortitude to bear this irreplaceable loss and may his gentle soul find eternal rest in the bosom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Please accept our deepest sympathies with sincere condolences.

A TRIBUTE TO MY FATHER AND MENTOR IN MINISTRY, MOST REV. USANG ISO

To write a tribute to Most Rev. Usang Iso is to write about grace personified.

He was not just a General to the Church, he was a Father to me. In my years of service at The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, Big Qua Town Parish, Calabar, I found in him more than a leader — I found a father who covered me, a mentor who shaped me, and a shepherd whose life preached louder than his pulpit.

Daddy was a rare gift. Firm in doctrine, but full of grace. A custodian of Presbyterian tradition, yet a father with a very tender heart. He believed in young ministers when many would overlook them. He corrected in love, he guided with wisdom, and he led by example.

During my service in Big Qua Town Parish, his counsel was my compass, his prayers were my strength, and his fatherly encouragement kept me going. He taught me that ministry is not about title, but about towel — to serve, to sacrifice, to shepherd faithfully till the end.

I remember his words, his calm spirit, his fatherly smile that could dissolve pressure. He did not just mentor me for parish work, he mentored me for life and for eternity.

Towards the end of my service in Big Qua Town, the Lord called him home. Though his death broke my heart, his legacy builds my faith. For though a great tree has fallen in the forest of the PCN, the seeds he planted — in pulpits, in parishes, and in sons like me — will continue to speak.

Rest well, my Father.
Rest well, my Mentor.
Rest well, God's General.
Good night, the Hero of faith.

Your work lives on. Your voice will echo in my ministry forever. Till we meet at the feet of the Master you so faithfully served.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant... enter thou into the joy of thy lord." (Matthew 25:21).

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

On behalf of the Session, ministers and entire congregation of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, Ediba Qua Parish, Calabar, we extend our heartfelt condolences to you and the entire family on the glorious transition of your beloved husband, father, brother and friend, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.), who departed this earthly life on Tuesday, 28th July 2026, at the age of 72 years.

We received the news of his passing with deep sorrow, yet we find comfort in the promises of God's Word and the assurance that, for those who die in the Lord, death is not the end but a passage into eternal rest. His life was a testimony of faith, dedication and service to God, the Church and humanity.

We particularly remember with gratitude his faithful service as Minister-in-Charge of Ediba Qua Parish from 2019 to 2022. During his time among us, he contributed meaningfully to the spiritual growth and welfare of the congregation through his ministry of preaching, teaching, pastoral care and Christian fellowship. His commitment to the work of God and his exemplary life of integrity, humility, discipline and compassion remain a cherished legacy that will continue to inspire us.

While we mourn his departure, we give thanks to Almighty God for the privilege of knowing and serving alongside him. We acknowledge that his passing has created a painful void in the family and among all who benefited from his ministry and leadership. We pray that the Holy Spirit will comfort you, strengthen your hearts and grant you the grace to bear this irreparable loss.

As you prepare to give him a befitting Christian farewell, please be assured of our prayers, love and fraternal support. May the memories of his life and ministry bring you comfort, and may the hope of the resurrection sustain you in this season of grief.

The Scripture assures us in Revelation 14:13: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

May the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. May the Lord uphold the entire family and grant you the fortitude to endure this difficult season.

Please accept the sincere condolences of the Session, ministers and entire congregation of Ediba Qua Parish.

Condolence Message

"How frail is man, how few is days, if a man dies, shall he live again?" Job 14:14.

It is with great sense of grief that the Kirk session and the entire parishioners of IKOT EKPO Parish received the shocking news of the demise of your beloved Husband, late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd), who passed on to eternal glory on Tuesday 28th July 2026.

Your late Husband late Rev Usang Iso was posted to served in the then Odukpani Road Parish now IKOT EKPO Parish in the Nineties. As a pastor minister in a multi-congregational parish, He had seven congregations under his coverage. They were Etakpiet, Adiabo, Ikot Mbo, Akim-Akim, George Memorial, Odukpani Qua and Ikot Ekpo as the parish headquarters. To Gods' glory three of the congregations are now parishes under Northern Calabar Presbytery. Rev Usang Iso was a bridge builder, who appreciated family relationship, a peacemaker, Counselor, his house was a home to the homeless. He was a veritable instrument in God's hands, always on visitation to the sick, always settling quarrels and making peace. He pursued peace with all men.

Your late husband was a man of integrity, highly principle and caring, honored and respected by all. He is a lost asset that can never be recovered in the family, the village and all those who came in contact with him. His relationship with IKOT EKPO Members was beyond Minister Parishioners relationship. We are his second family.

We accept the fact that death is a necessary end to all mortals but We view his demise as a painful exists especially when we recall his service to God and humanity. We urge you to look beyond his demise and draw inspiration from the word of God. And the achievement he had left in the sands of time.

As you go through this moment of grief. We pray that God in his infinite mercies grant you and the family the fortitude to bear this irreparable loss.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

It is with a deep sense of loss, the Efut Ekondo Kirk Session and Parishioners extend to you and your family our Condolences on the passing on to eternal glory of your beloved husband Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd), which sad event occurred on Tuesday, 28th July, 2026 at the age of 72 years.

The demise of your beloved husband, friend and confidant can be such a devastating event and we feel and understand your grief at this moment. Nevertheless, your late husband ran his earthly race and have bequeathed many legacies to humanity. His demise has indeed robbed you of veritable source of wise counsel, care and love.

From his profile, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso was a devout Christian, a Minister of the word in the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria who served faithfully as Minister in-charge of Efut Ekondo PCN from 2014-2019. Most Rev. Usang Iso was a distinguished educationalist and community leader who devoted his life to serve God and humanity.

For you the family, this is an irreparable loss, please, take solace that your beloved one lived an exemplary Christian life and left indelible footprint in the sands of time. Our prayers is that the good Lord will strengthen the family and grant you the fortitude to bear this loss.

TRIBUTE TO MY FATHER AND MENTOR – MOST REV. (DEAR FRIEND) USANG EKPENYONG ISO

Today I mourn with my household, for I have lost a Father, Mentor and Friend.
You picked me when I knew little or nothing in the Ministry. I remember on the 19th July, 1992 when you preached in the Service of my licensing as a Probationer.
I remember the topic of The Sermon: "The Battle Axe of the Lord" taken from Jeremiah 5:20.
I remember when you declared from the pulpit "Daniel, eyen ima mi, God has anointed you for battle in the Church, your community, and the world."

I remember when you said "God is with you and ahead of you in the Ministry". Father, God used you to say all these without shaking your head with ISShh, Kabash, Kuri.

You were a teacher, a prophet, a counsellor and priest to me. You found me when I knew little, you believed in me when I had little to offer, and you poured into me what time, money and books cannot give – life, wisdom, and God.

You taught me that Ministry is not boo boo ya ya.
You taught me Ministry is not about crowd, but about Christ.
That leadership is not about title, but about towel – to serve.
That knowledge and degrees without character is noise.
You taught me to preach the Word, to love the people, to stand for truth and justice, even when standing alone is costly.

Today, death has silenced your voice on earth, but your voice lives in my sermons, in my teachings, in my decisions, and in my walk with God.

In 2021, you personally chose me to preach at your retirement Service, I remember I reflected on Paul's Charge to Timothy (2Tim. 4:6-8) and Matt. 25:14-30 and declared to you on behalf of Christ "Well done thou good and faithful servant..." And I remember, I said, "you retire to refire your mentoring work".

Today, I join your Dear Friends to say:
Rest well, Sir. You fought a good fight. You finish your course.
You kept the faith, Now may the Good Lord wear you your crown of glory.
AMEN.

Your Son,
Most Rev. Daniel Eyo Etim

Dear Madam,

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

The Men's Christian Association of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, Efut Ekondo Parish, mourn with you over the passing of your dearly beloved husband, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.), who passed on Tuesday, July 28 2026 at the age of 72 years.

Your Late husband was a great Minister of the Word and Sacrament in the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria who served God diligently. He was a one-time Minister in Charge of our Parish, the PCN Efut Ekondo Parish, under whose tenure the parish recorded tremendous development and spiritual growth. He was a man of due process, and he led the parish with fairness and accountability.

He was truly a man designed by grace. He lived an exemplary life of discipline and humility within the Church circle and the larger community. He will be greatly missed, but we know that our loss is heaven's gain.

As you mourn the departure of your beloved husband, we pray the Lord to comfort you and grant you and the entire members of your family the fortitude to bear this irreplaceable loss.

Dear Madam,

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

The General Assembly Education Authority received with great shock the sad news of the demise of your dearly beloved husband, father, grandfather, uncle and brother Late Most Rev. Usang Iso at the age of 72 years.

Losing a faithful husband and companion of many years standing could be a very traumatic experience. Be consoled by the fact that your husband and father lived a very fulfilled life especially during his sojourn in the vineyard of the Lord Almighty as a disciplined, dedicated and impactful servant of God harvesting souls for the kingdom of God and blessing to humanity.

We recalled with nostalgia his services at Duke Town Secondary School as the Vice Principal and later as the Principal of the School. His commendable imprints in the School led to his elevation to the position of Administrative Secretary of the Education Authority.

In this period of grief and sorrow, may the Lord Almighty comfort you and the family in the cherished memories of your husband and the enduring love he shared with the members of the family. May the Lord grant unto his soul eternal repose, to the family the fortitude to bear the irreparable loss and to us the grace to keep the good work.

Do accept the assurances of our heartfelt condolences.

A TRIBUTE TO THE LATE MOST REV. USANG ISO

The entire congregation of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, Okoro-Nu-Odo Bethel Parish, Port Harcourt, pays tribute to the late Most Rev. Usang Iso, our pioneer minister-in-Charge, who served from 2000 to 2001 and helped lay a solid spiritual foundation for our Parish's growth

A HUMBLE AND DEDICATED SERVANT OF GOD

Most Rev. Usang Iso was a humble, soft-spoken, compassionate, peaceful, and friendly servant of God, whose commitment and dedication to the Lord's work remain worthy of remembrance. He cared deeply for the flock entrusted to him. Whenever a member was absent from worship, he would visit the family to offer encouragement and to pray with them, demonstrating genuine pastoral love and concern.

A DEVOTED FAMILY MAN AND COUNSELLOR

He was also a devoted family man. We fondly recall how he combined his pastoral responsibilities with caring for his three sons while his wife pursued her studies. His life was characterized by contentment, humility, and total dependence on God. As an encourager and gifted counsellor, he was always ready to listen, offer wise counsel, and help others find hope in difficult circumstances.

A LEGACY THAT ENDURES

As the first Minister-in-Charge of our Parish, his contribution remains an important part of our history. We shall greatly miss his calm disposition, gentle spirit, compassionate heart, and strong convictions. We thank God for the privilege of his ministry and for the foundation he helped establish. His life reminds us that faithful service to God and His people leaves a lasting legacy.

We extend our heartfelt condolences to his wife, children, and the entire family. May the God of all comfort uphold them and grant them the grace to bear this great loss.

May the gentle soul of our beloved Etubom, Most Rev. Usang Iso, rest in the eternal peace of our Lord. Amen.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

On behalf of the Executive and the entire Women's Guild, we pay a heartfelt tribute to our beloved minister, the late Most Rev. Usang Iso (RTD), fondly called "Dear Friends," who passed on at the age of 72.

His life was a testament to faith, dedication, and service to God. His ministry, wise counsel, and spiritual contributions will forever remain in our hearts. His years of selfless service, sound doctrine, fatherly counsel, and unwavering love for the work of God laid a strong foundation upon which we stand today.

His legacy of humility, dedication, and commitment to the growth of the Church will continue to inspire generations. Though he has answered the heavenly call, the seeds he planted through his years of service will continue to bear fruit in the lives of many.

May God grant his family, Church, and Community the strength to bear this great loss.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

The Northern Calabar Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, received the news of the demise of your lovely Husband, Father, and Our amiable Father and retired Minister of PCN, MOST REV USANG ISO (RTD) who transited peacefully to glory at a gracious age of 72 years old on the 28th July 2026.

" The days of our lives are seventy years, and if by reason of strength are eighty years, yet their boast is only in their labour and sorrow cut off and we fly away" Psalms 90:10. Thank God your father had lived well and above seventy, hence it call for celebration of a life well lived.

Since the death of a beloved one comes with great pains irrespective of the good long years lived and wonderful memories ever shared, the Northern Presbytery leadership and the entire Commissioners/Resource Members commiserate with you and the entire bereaved family over Etubom's departure and the large vacuum that has been created by his absence.

We urge you all therefore not to mourn as people without hope but be assured by God's word that he has only departed to rest – sleeping, not lost but in Christ he shall resurrect unto eternal life.

Be therefore consoled in God and extend words of His comfort to one others.

As you give him a befitting burial today, the Northern Calabar Presbytery wishes you all a peaceful and successful ceremony and May his soul enter into God's eternal rest and bosom, Amen.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

"To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heavens, A time to be born and a time to die" Eccl 3:42

On behalf the Kirk Session and Parishioners of George Memorial Parish of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, Ikot Omin, Calabar, We write to condole with you and the entire bereaved family on the demise of your beloved Husband and Father Late Most Rev Usang Iso(RTD) who departed this sinful world on the 28th July 2026 at a blessed age of 72 years. ETUBOM, was our one time Mininster In-charge of the then Old Odukpani Parish, overseeing us as a George Memorial Congregation

He was a remarkably peace loving, unassuming Servant of God, aShepherd Icon, &' a paragon of faithfulness

As we mourn his departure today, wonderful memories of Him are remembered as he tenderly nurtured us throgh our formative years as a growing Church.

We know how close you were to him as a loving father, husband, adviser, and a caring friend, we as a Parish share in your family grief and enjoin you all to take heart and emulate his Christian exemplary life.

May the Almighty God grant you and the entire bereaved family the fortitude to bear this loss and grant Etubom eternal rest at Abraham's bosom, Amen.

Dear Ma,

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE ON THE PASSING OF LATE MOST REV. USANG ISO (RTD.)

It is with a heart filled with sadness that I received the news of the passing of your beloved husband, LATE MOST REV. USANG ISO (RTD.), at the age of 72.

On behalf of my family, the good people of Bakassi Local Government Area, and the Office of the Vice Chairman, I extend my deepest condolences to you, the children, the entire family, and the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria on this painful loss.

From the account of his life and service, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso was a man who devoted himself to God, education, Christian ministry and the service of humanity. His years as an educator and minister, as well as his commitment to his faith and community, speak to a life of purpose and service. Though his passing leaves a painful void, the values he lived by and the lives he touched will remain part of his enduring legacy.

At this difficult moment, I pray that the Almighty God will grant you and the entire family the strength and grace to bear this irreparable loss. May He comfort you, uphold the children and loved ones, and grant the departed eternal rest in His kingdom.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences and assurance of my prayers.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

I come before you with a heavy heart and a strong sense of grief.

This is so because I know what it means to lose a dear one especially husband.

My dear Hon. Edisua, please note that Man cannot condole you enough but only God Almighty Can.

Nostalgically, I recall the quantum of support and steadfastness you received from your dear husband during your era as the First Female and Only Local Government Chairman for now in Bakassi .

Your dear husband remained a pillar of strength, a dependable ally and a prayer warrior who gave you the needed spiritual and moral guidance to navigate and strategically pilot the Affairs of a male dominated system.

The late Reverend Usang Iso amplified professionalism and meticulous attention to his teaching profession leaving no room for criticism when he took that solemn decision to tow the line of Ecclesiastical teaching and Mentoring.

As a Servant in the Lord's Vineyard, he resonated those Principles of Sound Doctrine and undiluted Sermons.

I stand firm as a true testament and strong believer in those dogged principles he held tenaciously while in the Lord's Vineyard.

Even when he retired, his Services as a Community Leader were unquestionable in all spheres.

Once again, hold on to those enduring legacies he bequeathed on the sands of time.

As mere mortals, we cannot question His Majesty, the Creator of the Universe.

Please be Consoled.

May the Good Lord use his Good works to remember His and adequately reward Him in Jesus Name . Amen

Dear Sir,

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE ON THE GLORIOUS TRANSITION OF LATE MOST REV. USANG ISO (RTD.)

On behalf of the leadership, stalwarts, and the entire membership of the All Progressives Congress (APC), Cross River State Chapter, we write to extend our heartfelt condolences to the immediate family, the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, and the entire community during this period of grief.

Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.) lived a highly impactful and exemplary life. As a distinguished educationist, he left an indelible mark on the minds of many young generations while serving meritoriously as a classroom teacher and Vice Principal in several schools across Cross River State.

His later devotion to full-time Christian Ministry in the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria further showcased his unwavering commitment to the service of God and humanity. He was truly a man of integrity, discipline, humility, and dedication whose legacy will continue to touch many lives.

While we recognize that his departure leaves a massive void that cannot easily be filled, we urge you to find solace in the rich, purposeful, and godly life he lived, as well as his glorious transition into eternal rest.

Our thoughts, prayers, and pastoral fellowship are with the bereaved family as you prepare to give him a befitting Christian farewell. We pray that Almighty God, in His infinite mercy, grants you the fortitude to bear this irreparable loss and wraps you all in His comfort and peace.

May his gentle soul rest in perfect peace.

Dear Asi,

RE: NOTIFICATION OF DEATH

I received with heavy heart the sad news of your father's demise. Most Rev; Usang Iso Rtd.

Rev. Iso, lived an exemplary and honest life. Caring for everyone around him and holding onto God, even in death bed. He distinguished himself with the life of faith, love and impact, he led.

He was a man who loved to render service to people and there's no gainsaying he was loved by people.

During this trying period, remember that you are not alone, we are with you in every step as you set out to give your patriarch a befitting burial, worthy of the indelible prints he has left in the sands of time, one of which is you!

I am certain he passed on smiling, knowing you achieved your legal pursuit in his lifetime, and he has you to build on the legacies he has left behind.

Please be consoled by the love and kindness your patriarch embodied and use that as a source of strength and inspiration, for you and your family as you prepare to put him in his final resting place.

THE HOME CALL OF A PILGRIM: MOST REV. USANG ISO, (RTD).

I received with a deep sense of loss the notification of your husband's peaceful liberation from this prison of hope called life, at the age of 72.

It is always worth etching in our consciousness that, the value of human existence consists not in the length of days, but in the quality with which our lives are lived to the service of God and Humanity. Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd), was one of the servants of God of our time, who was noted for his uncompromising faith walk with God while here on earth. Hence, his passage signifies, "A soul lost on earth and gained in Heaven".

This goes to confirm the truth that, "The sadness of death lies not in the physical separation from loved ones, but much more, especially when a walk is taken down memory lane, in reminiscence of the life and times of the deceased.

May your husband's path remain aglow as he walks into the hallowed presence of his Creator.

Our thoughts and prayers will always remain with the family.

CONDOLENCE

The Commissioner, Permanent Secretary and staff of the Ministry of Social Welfare and Community Development received with profound grief and deep sense of loss, news of the painful demise of your dearly beloved husband and clergyman and great son of Cross River State, Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd) on Tuesday, 28th July, 2026 after a prolonged illness at the age of 72 years.

From record, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso was a distinguished educationist, clergyman and community leader who devoted his life to the service of God, humanity, the church and the development of Cross River State.

It is pathetic to stress that your husband death is one incident that has left a sour taste in the mouths of all well-meaning Cross Riverians as it expressed the transient nature of life and the fact that good things do not last long. Indeed, the weight of the loss of your loving husband will ever be greater on you and the entire family, considering the closeness, love and affinity that existed between you and him while on earth. We admonish you, however to be consoled by the worthy legacies he bequeathed and the fact that having lived a dedicated life of service to God and humanity, he is resting peacefully in his creator.

We are indeed saddened by the monumental loss of the great son and clergyman of Big Qua Town, Calabar.

On behalf of the Commissioner, Management and staff of the Ministry of Social Welfare and Community Development, we pray that God grants you and the entire family the fortitude to bear the irreparable loss and the soul eternal repose in His Kingdom.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE TO THE FAMILY OF LATE REV. USANG ISO (RTD.)

The Kirk Session and the entire members of Lagos Presbyterian Church, Yaba Parish, commiserate with the family of our dearly departed minister, Late Rev. Usang Iso (RTD.), who passed away on 28th July 2026.

Rev. Usang Iso served faithfully as a Probationer at Lagos Presbyterian Church, Yaba Parish, under the leadership of the late Rev. Chukwu Mmahi. We remember with gratitude his service and contributions to the ministry of the Gospel and the work of God in our Parish.

Although his departure brings sorrow to the hearts of his loved ones and all who knew him, we take solace in the hope and comfort we have in our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the Resurrection and the Life (John 11:25). At this difficult time, we stand in solidarity with the bereaved family and pray that Almighty God will comfort them, strengthen their hearts, and grant them the grace to bear this irreparable loss. May the assurance of God's unfailing love and the hope of eternal life in Christ sustain the entire family in their moments of grief.

May the soul of our departed minister rest in the bosom of the Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon him.

RE: A WORTHY SERVANT OF GOD TAKES A BOW.

The passing of your husband, Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd) came to us as a great shock, even as he was blessed to live two years beyond the biblically recommended threescore and ten age, to reach 72 years on this mortal plane.

He was a distinguished clergyman and an exemplarily committed educationist, whose devotion to the service of God and humanity appeared to be the only purpose for which he lived and died.

"We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord," (2 Corinthians 5:8). This is always the true consciousness of devoted Christians.

God will surely be the strength of his family, the Church, and all who survived him.

RE: NOTICATION OF THE GLORIOUS TRANSITION OF LATE MOST REV USANG ISO (RTD)

With deep personal sympathy I received the news of the demise of your beloved late husband Most Rev Usang Iso [Rtd.] who slept in the Lord on 28th July, 2026.

I vividly recall that your late husband was a very friendly and cheerful Minister of God who was also an educationist and a community leader. He was also a devoted husband and a good father to his children.

The book of Ecclesiastes 3: 1 states that for every human..."there is time to be born and a time to die". It therefore behooves that we have to accept the will of God even though it can be painful. However, the all-wise God knows the very reason of our existence and eventual withdrawal.

We thank God for his life and service on earth to God and mankind. We pray that his gentle soul rest in perfect peace and the family consoled.

Please accept once again my personal condolences because it is well with you all. Amen.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

With deep sorrow but with total submission to the will of the Almighty God, the Commissioner, Management and Staff of Ministry of Establishments, Training and Pensions, sincerely write to commiserate with you and the entire family on the demise of your beloved husband Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd).

The news of his death came to us as a rude shock. He was a distinguished gentleman, a loving husband, a devoted Father and a man whose life was marked by humility, wisdom, and selfless service to God, family and the community. As a Reverend of the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, he was a good shepherd whose ministration was spirit filled. His departure has therefore created a vacuum that will be difficult to fill.

At this moment of grief, words may not be enough to comfort you but please be assured that you are not alone. The Lord who sees and knows all, will comfort you and give you the fortitude to bear this irreparable loss.

We extend our heartfelt condolences to you, the children and other members of the family and we pray that the Almighty God will grant his soul eternal rest in His bosom.

May his legacy continue to live on and may God keep and uphold you and the family he left behind.

BAKASSI PEOPLES GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TO:

ELDER HON. PRINCESS EDISUA USANG ISO Ph.D

Dearly Beloved,

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE OVER THE DEMISE OF MOST REVEREND USANG ISO RTD.

It is with heavy heart that we members of Bakassi Peoples General Assembly received the shocking news of the demise of your beloved husband, a man of God, Most Reverend Usang Iso. It is really a trying moment for you and your entire family going through such a loss at this time.

Most Reverend Usang Iso (Late) was a man full of life, love and attention, always supportive of your political journey in Bakassi and Cross River State in general.

There is a saying that goes "The one God loves most, he calls them first". It is a way that every mortal on earth must pass through.

We members of Bakassi People's General Assembly know that the departure is really a hard reality to accept but we want to use this opportunity to implore you to be consoled in the fact that Most Reverend Iso lived good and fulfilled life, and that his soul will find rest in the bosom of the lord, while God Almighty will fill every gap created by his demise.

May his soul rest in peace. Amen.

Yours faithfully,

Deacon Hon. Amb. Bassey Ita Edet

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

The news of the demise of your dear husband (Late) Most Reverend Usang Iso was received with sadness coming at a time when his services could have been needed even after his retirement.

Late Rev Iso was a focused and dedicated man of God who served in the vineyard of God and impacted positvely to advance the spiritual development of his congregation.

As an educationist he trained his pupils and students to grow in the fear of God> His simplicity and his huminlity are good virtues that are worthy of emulation and will serve as lasting legacy

I Pray for the Almighty God to give you and the family the fortItude to bear the irreparable loss.

May his soul rest in peace.

Yours Sincerely,

Dear sister,

On behalf of the leadership and entire membership of Mbono Iban Isong Efik, I extend our heartfelt condolences to you and your family on the passing of your beloved husband, Most Rev. Usang Iso (RTD.).

We understand that the loss of a beloved husband and life partner is deeply painful. At this difficult moment, we want you to know that you are not alone. Mbono Iban Isong Efik stands with you all the way, sharing in your grief and offering our love, prayers, and unwavering support.

Your husband's life was one of purpose, service, and lasting impact. As a distinguished educationist, a devoted minister of the Gospel in God's vineyard, a loving husband and father, and a respected community leader, he touched many lives and left behind a legacy worthy of honour. His contributions to education, the Church, his family, and society will continue to speak long after his departure.

We encourage you to find comfort in the knowledge that he lived a good and fulfilled life, serving God and humanity in meaningful ways. Though his physical presence will be greatly missed, the values he upheld and the lives he transformed will remain a lasting testimony to his legacy.

As Christians, we do not grieve as those who have no hope. The Word of God assures us in 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14 that our sorrow is not without hope. In Psalm 34:18, we are reminded that the Lord is close to the brokenhearted, while Revelation 21:4 assures us that God will wipe away every tear from our eyes. May these promises strengthen you and your family in this season of grief.

Please be assured that we will stand by you throughout this difficult period and be with you and your family during the obsequies as we honour the life and legacy of your dear departed husband.

May the Almighty God uphold you, grant you the strength to bear this loss, surround your family with His peace, and comfort every grieving heart. May He preserve the precious memories of your husband and give you the grace to face each new day with renewed hope and courage.

Please accept our deepest condolences. We mourn with you, we pray with you, and we stand with you. May the Lord be your refuge and strength, a very present help in this time of trouble (Psalm 46:1).

With heartfelt sympathy, Christian love, and prayers.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

With profound sadness yet with total submission to the will of the Almighty God, the leadership and entire members of the All Progressives Congress (APC), Bakassi Chapter received the news of the glorious transition of your beloved husband Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd).

At 72 years, he lived a fulfilled life marked by dignity, humility, uncommon grace and selfless service to God and humanity. He was indeed a Man Designed by Grace, a faithful shepherd whose ministry in the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria brought light and hope to countless souls.

We are consoled by 2 Timothy 4:7-8: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith."

May the Almighty God comfort you, the children and the entire family the fortitude to bear this loss and grant his gentle soul perfect peace.

Adieu, faithful servant of God!

The World Surgical Foundation Board of Directors is deeply saddened by the passing of Most Reverend Usang Iso (Rtd), a remarkable man who served beautifully as a devoted servant, shepherd, a loving father, and a loyal friend. He lived a life of true testament to the gospel. His legacy of faith, wisdom, generosity and kindness has left an undeniable mark on all of our hearts.

Most Reverend Usang Iso (Rtd), was a remarkable man of God who served his flock faithfully. We will miss his sincere pleasure in welcoming us to his home, the warmth of his smiles, the joy in his voice, the richness of our conversations with him in ways to offer assistance to the less privileged through specialized surgical care.

As we grieve the profound loss of his presence among us, we take comfort in knowing he has entered the eternal joy of the Lord he served so faithfully. We are praying that the Holy Spirit wraps your family in perfect peace, provides comfort in your sorrow, and strengthens your family in the days ahead.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

The Ntoe Elect and the entire members of Big Qua Clan Cabinet do heartily express our sincere condolences on the glorious transition to glory of your beloved husband, father, a true and dedicated man of God, Most Rev. Usang Ekpenyong Iso (Rtd) whose sad event occurred on the 28th July, 2026.

Words are not enough to convey our heartfelt condolences to you and your family on the painful departure of your beloved husband and father. We believe he has gone to be with his maker, and Almighty God will fill the vacuum his exit has created in your family. Most Rev. Usang Iso was humble, sociable, and a dedicated Presbyterian, who has contributed immensely to the growth of his home parish and higher court of the church. His spiritual counseling and advice to his community when need arises can never be forgotten in a hurry.

Over the decades, through his outstanding and unparalleled achievements, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso has written his name in Gold within his community and the entire Qua Nations at large. He will continue to be remembered by generations as a reference point in uprightness, welfarism, visionary, selfless, transformational and exemplary leadership.

Please, be comforted for death is a mystery that strikes without respect to age, stature and personality, leaving in its wake sorrow, but to Christians, it is the beginning of a new life in Christ, because it is only by death that we can rest with the Lord.

The Big Qua Clan Cabinet therefore pray that God Almighty will grant you and your family the fortitude to bear this irreparable loss, and to the departed eternal rest in the Lord, Amen.

Please accept our heartfelt condolences and may his soul rest in the Lord.

The Esinjo and the entire members of Adoho – Ase family received with shock the news of the passing away of your husband and father, Late Most Rev. Usang Ekpenyong Iso, whose sad event occurred on the 28th of July, 2026 at the age of 72 years. No doubt, death is a necessary end, but the loss of a dear one, especially a good person like yours could be heartbreaking and devastating. Please do accept his passing as a divine call especially as he has only gone deservedly to rest in the bosom of our creator. It is equally founded in the scriptures that whatever has a beginning must have an end.

There's no suitable substitute to fill the vacuum his exit has created in both the nuclear family, Adoho – Ase family and the community at large, but do take solace in the fact that he lived a life worthy of emulation and that surely, we will be reunited on the resurrection morning.

As you mourn his death and departure to the great beyond, the Adoho – Ase family pray God to grant you the Grace and fortitude to bear the unfortunate and irreparable loss and also grant his soul eternal repose in his bosom.

Amen.

TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED UNCLE-IN-LAW

With a heavy heart, yet in total submission to the will of Almighty God, I pay this tribute to a great servant of God and a rare gem.

You were more than an in-law to me; you were a father. Your warm smiles and genuine love always made me feel at home. I will never forget how you fondly called me "nwan eyen mi" — and how your face would light up with joy anytime I visited with fresh fish. That simple gesture, filled with so much love, will forever remain in my heart.

Though your physical presence is no more, your legacy of love, diligence, and unwavering faith lives on in everyone whose life you touched.

As we commit you to Mother Earth today, I find solace in the beautiful life you lived and the good name you left behind. You will be greatly missed.

Adieu, Rev. You have fought the good fight, you have finished the race, and you have kept the faith.

May your gentle soul find eternal rest in the bosom of our Lord.

TRIBUTE TO A FAITHFUL SERVANT OF GOD WHO CARRIED THE LIGHT

Today, we do not just mourn an ending; we celebrate a magnificent race well run. In losing Most Rev. Usang Iso heaven has gained a faithful son, and the earth has lost a towering pillar of grace, humility, and unwavering faith.

To know Most Rev. Usang Iso was to experience the love of Christ up close. He of a man of the Word, integrity, discipline, humility, trustworthy and dedication and a man of the secret place—someone whose knees spent as much time bowed in prayer as his hands spent lifting others out of despair. Whether he was behind a pulpit speaking to thousands or sitting across a table listening to a single broken heart, he carried the same quiet dignity, wisdom, and genuine compassion.

He taught us how to stand firm when life felt uncertain, how to forgive deeply, and how to trust a God whose ways are higher than our own. He did not just preach the Gospel with his lips; he lived it out through acts of quiet generosity, relentless service, and a life completely surrendered to his Master.

Though our hearts ache with the heavy reality of parting ways, we take immense comfort in the promise of Scripture: "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints" (Psalm 116:15).

Thank you, Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd) for your sacrifices, your prayers, your laughter, and the indelible footprint you leave on our lives and in this Church and community. We will miss your voice, your spiritual guidance, and your presence, but we will carry your legacy forward.

Sleep on in the bosom of the Lord until the morning comes, when we shall meet to part no more.

With love and eternal gratitude,

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

I received with a deeply saddened heart the news of the passing of your beloved husband, Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.), aged 72, who departed this earthly life on Tuesday, 28th July 2026, after a prolonged illness.

There are moments when words simply fail us. Losing a husband, companion, and cherished partner is a pain that only God can fully understand. I can only imagine the depth of the void his departure has created in your heart and home.

Please be comforted by the assurance that "the Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit" (Psalm 34:18). May God grant you, your children and the entire family the strength to bear this irreparable loss, and may the memories of the years you shared together bring comfort in the days ahead.

As you mourn, may the grace of God sustain you, His presence surround you, and His peace that surpasses all understanding guard your heart.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences. I mourn with you, dear friend, and I pray that the Almighty God will uphold you through this difficult season.

Dear Madam,

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

I write on behalf of all staff of Gracian Medical Resource, to commiserate with you and your family, on the very painful passing of your beloved husband and father, Most Reverend Usang Iso, Rtd. (1954-2026). In the 'short' period of time that we got to know and care for him, we all came to appreciate the Reverend as a true man of God, with a kind, loving and gentle disposition. We are indeed pained by his unexpected demise.

From your letter of notification, it is quite clear that Rev. Iso lived a positively impactful life, for which we give thanks to God. The sense of loss that is bound to grip your family at this time, is thus understandable. We extend to all members of the Usang Iso family, our deepest condolences.

While we understand and identify with you in this period of grief, we wish at the same time, to admonish that as Christians, you weep not like those without hope. Rather, take solace in the knowledge that God's plan for His children, there shall be a resurrection whereupon all of His elect shall meet face to face with their loved ones, to part no more. As believers, we hold on to this hope. God be with you.

May the spirit of Rev. Iso, find eternal rest in the Lord. Amen.

OUR CONDOLENCES.

I, on behalf of myself, my nuclear family and the entire members of staff of Sil Eye Clinic, Calabar wish to commiserate with you on the transition to glory of your beloved husband, father and my "Dear Friend" late Most Rev. Usang Iso at a ripe age of 72 years, to the glory of God.

Late Most Rev Usang Iso was a beloved, humble, modest and unpretentious, a disposition of his that I always admired. He was my pastor and our good friend in our office. My members of staff always appreciate his jokes and cheerfulness. They will always ask me "when is Rev coming back?"

Please, let's all find solace in the fact that Rev is in a better place, where there's no ailment nor pain, rather enjoying the cozy bosom of our Almighty God and Father.

May his gentle soul rest peacefully in His bosom.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

Dear Aunty Edisua,

It is with profound sadness and heartfelt sympathy that we received the news of the passing of your dear husband, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (RTD). On behalf of the entire family of Late Deno Enuo and Late Chief Mrs. Efiom Ita Efiom, we extend our deepest condolences to you, the immediate family, the church, and all those whose lives were touched by his remarkable ministry and exemplary life.

The passing of a beloved husband, father, spiritual leader, and distinguished servant of God leaves a void that words alone cannot adequately express. His years of service, faith, dedication, and commitment to the work of God will remain a lasting legacy and a source of inspiration to generations to come.

At this difficult time, we pray that Almighty God will grant you and the entire family the strength to bear this painful loss, the comfort to navigate the days ahead, and the peace that surpasses all human understanding. May the cherished memories of his life, his Christian witness, and his contributions to humanity bring you comfort even in the midst of grief.

Though we mourn his departure from this earthly life, we take solace in the hope and promise of eternal rest for those who faithfully serve the Lord. May his soul rest in perfect peace, and may the good Lord uphold the entire family throughout the funeral and thanksgiving ceremonies.

Please accept our heartfelt condolences and the assurance of our thoughts and prayers during this period of mourning.

With deepest sympathy and sincere regards,

TRIBUTE TO AN EVER-SMILING MAN OF HONOUR AND INTEGRITY

In Loving Memory of Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.)

Some lives are so beautifully lived that even in death, their light continues to shine. Some men leave behind legacies that time cannot erase, memories that death cannot diminish, and footprints that generations will continue to follow. Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.) was one such man.

The news of your glorious transition leaves a deep ache in the hearts of all who knew and loved you. Yet, amid the pain of this irreparable loss, we find comfort in the knowledge that you lived a life of purpose, faith, honour and selfless service to God and humanity.

You were, indeed, an ever-smiling man of honour and integrity. Your warm smile was more than an expression on your face; it was a reflection of a heart that radiated kindness, humility and goodwill. Your disposition spoke of a man who carried himself with dignity, treated others with respect and understood the enduring value of honesty, discipline and godly character. You exemplified the rare virtues of a trustworthy man whose words and actions inspired confidence and admiration.

As an educationist, you helped shape lives and build the foundations upon which many destinies were nurtured. Your years of service as a classroom teacher and Vice Principal were a testament to your commitment to the growth and development of the younger generation. Yet, in obedience to a higher calling, you willingly left the teaching profession to devote yourself fully to the ministry of the gospel in The Presbyterian Church of Nigeria. This decision spoke volumes about the depth of your faith and the sincerity of your devotion to God.

As a clergyman and servant of the Most High, you gave yourself to the work of the Kingdom, touching lives through your ministry, counsel, leadership and unwavering commitment to the Church. Your service was not merely a position you occupied; it was a calling you embraced with dedication and reverence. Even when declining health began to take its toll, your life remained a testimony to the faith you professed and the God you served.

Beyond the pulpit and the classroom, you were a man whose influence extended into the community. You understood that true greatness is not measured by titles, status or public recognition, but by the lives one touches, the values one upholds and the good one leaves behind. Your life of discipline, humility and integrity remains a worthy example for all who had the privilege of knowing you.

Most Rev. Usang Iso, you may have bowed out of earthly service, but your legacy has not retired. The lessons you taught, the faith you demonstrated, the smiles you shared, the lives you influenced and the values you embodied will continue to speak long after your departure. Your family will remember you with love; the Church will remember you with gratitude; your community will remember you with honour; and those whose paths crossed yours will remember the remarkable man behind that ever-welcoming smile.

To your beloved wife, children, family members, the Presbyterian Church and all who mourn this painful loss, may the Almighty God grant you the strength to bear this sorrow. May the beautiful memories of his life bring comfort to your hearts, and may the assurance of the resurrection through our Lord Jesus Christ sustain you in this difficult season.

Though our hearts mourn your departure, we do not mourn as those without hope. We take solace in the words of Scripture: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith". 2 Timothy 4:7.

Dear Most Rev. Usang Iso, your earthly journey has ended, but your story of honour, integrity, faith and service will continue to inspire us. You have left the stage, but the echoes of your goodness remain. You have closed your eyes to this world, but the memories of your life remain alive in our hearts.

Rest peacefully in the bosom of your Lord, dear father in the faith. May the angels welcome you home, and may your gentle soul find eternal rest in the presence of the Almighty God whom you served so faithfully.

Adieu, Daddy Usang Iso .
Adieu, Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.).
Adieu, an ever-smiling man of honour, integrity and uncommon devotion to God. Your light will not be forgotten, and your legacy will endure.

Good night, the gallant soldier of the Cross, till we meet again at the feet of our Lord.
May your gentle soul rest in perfect peace. Amen.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

The executive and the entire members of Qua Education Forum received with shock the news of the demise of your dear husband, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso, at the age of 72 years.

The Bible says: "There's a time for everything and season for every activity under heaven, a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot Eccl3:1-2 ". Though we may not be able to wipe your tears or heal your broken heart with mere words, be console by the fact that death is not the end of a Christian, the dead shall rise again someday.

Your beloved husband bowed in obedience to the will of God at the age of 72 years. There is no doubt that he lived an industrious and fulfilled life and has left indelible mileposts on earth. His death at this time amount to a loss of a rare gem, an achiever and indeed an irreparable loss to the family, church, community and nation at large. We take consolation on the legacies he left behind and that he will rise up on the resurrection day.

Please accept our condolences and may He 'who neither sleep nor slumber' comfort you and your entire family in this moment of grief.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

We, the Management and Staff of Macado Mould Engineering Ltd extend our deepest and most heartfelt condolences to the family, clergy, and congregation upon the transition of The Most Reverend Usang Iso (Rtd) who died on the 28th July, 2026 with sadness and grief at the age of 72 years.

To some, he was a visionary leader, a wise counselor, and a powerful voice from the pulpit. To others, he was a gentle shepherd who sat in quiet hospital rooms, wept with the broken hearted, and rejoiced through every milestone of our lives. His life was an open letter of grace, humility, and unwavering dedication to the Church, his family and the wider Community.

Whether he was comforting a family in their darkest hour or inspiring us to reach higher in our walk with Christ, his presence had a way of making us feel seen, valued, and deeply loved by our Heavenly Father. He gave generously of his time, his strength, and his heart—often sacrificing his own comfort to ensure his flock was cared for.

Rest in peace, man of God. Your legacy lives on in every life and ministry you touched, every seed you planted, and every prayer you prayed. We pray that the God of all comfort wraps you in His peace and grants you strength during this time of profound loss.

May his gentle soul rest in eternal peace."

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE

Dear Ma,
We, the members of District 6, Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, Big Qua Town Parish, wish to express our heartfelt condolences to you and the entire Usang Iso family on the glorious transition of your beloved husband, father, and servant of God, Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.), who departed this world on Tuesday, 28th July, 2026.
We received the news of his passing with profound sadness. However, we take solace in the sovereign will of Almighty God, who gives life and calls His children home at His appointed time. Although his departure has created a great vacuum in the family, the Church, and the Christian community, we are comforted by the assurance of God's Word in Revelation 14:13, which says, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord... that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."
The late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.) was a devoted servant of God who faithfully served the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria with dedication, commitment, and distinction. His contributions to the growth of the Church, his exemplary Christian life, and his service to humanity will remain a lasting legacy. His life of faith and service has left an indelible mark on the Church and on all those who had the privilege of knowing him.
At this difficult moment, we identify with you, Ma, the children, and the entire family in your grief. We pray that Almighty God, the source of all comfort, will strengthen and uphold you. May the Holy Spirit, our Comforter, grant you peace in the midst of sorrow and the grace to bear this painful loss. May His unfailing love sustain you and give you the courage to face the days ahead.
Be assured that District 6, Big Qua Town Parish, stands with you in prayers and Christian love during this period of mourning. May the memories of his faithful service to God bring you comfort, and may his godly legacy continue to inspire generations to come.
Once again, please accept our deepest condolences. May Almighty God grant you and the entire family the fortitude to bear this irreparable loss.
May the soul of our beloved father in the Lord rest in perfect peace, and may perpetual light shine upon him. Amen.

Yours faithfully in Christ,

Dear Elder Dr Mrs Edisua Iso,

I extend my deep condolence to you and your family on the passing of your dear husband, Most Reverend Usang Iso.

I first met your husband when he was a probationer in Yaba Presbyterian church, Lagos. We had taken the Glorious Voices of Hope Waddell to Lagos for a national music competition organized by Musical Society of Nigeria (MUSON) and the choir worshipped in Yaba Presbyterian church while in Lagos. Reverend Iso accorded us unprecedented hospitality.

He was a peaceful, humble, loving, unassuming and honorable man whose positive impact in the church, his community and humanity was enormous. He will be greatly remembered.

Please be comforted by the thought that he is in a better place for our citizenship is in heaven (Philippians 3:20). My thoughts are with the entire Iso family at this difficult moment. I pray that God grants his soul eternal rest and also grants you the fortitude to bear this great loss.

Dear Sir,

CONDOLENSCE MESSAGE

We, your tenants are greatly stunned and short of words to express our deep sorrow and sympathy on the demise of your beloved husband and father, whom we all refer to as "Daddy" Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.). It came as a real tremor to us all when we got the sadden news. More so, that Daddy was a great man with a conglomerate of virtues that no one would want to miss. He was a leader and a peace maker, a dedicated Christian, a father to us all and a model to everyone around him. It is true that we will all miss him greatly!

We seized this opportunity to commensurate with you and his lovely Sons, at this difficult time in your lives. We pray that God will grant you and the entire family Daddy left behind the peace that you need to get through this. In this period of mourning as well as celebration of fulfilled and long life, we urge you to continue to be strong in Almighty God as it is our great hope to see Daddy on the last day.

May Daddy's gentle soul rest in perfect peace. We all miss him greatly.

The Most Rev Usang Ekpenyong Iso: Tribute to A Brother, Colleague and Friend

The days ran fast, after we left you looking good. We chatted heartily and we're encouraged that you were recovering fast. We felt good but did not know that, that was a farewell fellowship. When we received the news, it was not pleasant. What if we did not come when we came,? Thank God, we came and the pain is less. We thank God for your life .
You were many things to us : brother , friend, and colleague (as a teacher and a Pastor). We belonged to the same age bracket and grew up in the same environment (Church and Community). You were a lover of peace and a peaceful man. You loved your family and your God.
Rev Usang Iso, we slept in the same room at Arochukwu GA (2024) and looked forward to the next GA (August 2026) in Calabar, but alas, you left.
You were a strong man, you endured the pain manfully concealing as much as you could. Today, your pains are gone, you are now at rest. You are awaiting the trumpet blast when you and all who have gone ahead will rise first, then we who are awake on this side will join you. It shall be a great reunion.

Your departure hurts but we are grateful that you are spared the pains and your family too.

Good night brother!
Good night the smiling colleague!
Good night our Pastor.! See you in the morning.
May the good Lord comfort and keep your wife, children, siblings and us all

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

It is with profound sorrow and heartfelt sympathy that my family extends our sincere condolences to you and your entire family on the glorious transition of your beloved husband, father and friend, Late Most Rev. Usang Iso (Rtd.).
Your late husband was indeed a God-fearing man, a devoted Christian, and a man of great faith whose life reflected the grace and goodness of God. He was known for his cheerful disposition, warm smile, and unwavering trust in the Lord. His commitment to God and his exemplary Christian life will remain a lasting testimony to all who had the privilege of knowing him.
Although his departure has created a painful void in the hearts of those he left behind, we take comfort in the assurance that, for a faithful believer, death is not the end but a glorious transition into eternity. His passing is a gain to heaven, and we are encouraged by the hope that all who remain faithful in Christ shall meet again on the resurrection morning.
We pray that the Almighty God, who has called him to eternal glory, will comfort you and the entire family, strengthen your hearts, and grant you the grace to bear this painful loss. May the fond memories of his life, faith and service to God continue to inspire and encourage you.
May his gentle soul rest peacefully in the bosom of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Please accept our heartfelt condolences.
May the Lord comfort and uphold you all.

Dear Family,

OUR UNMITIGATED CONDOLENCES

We send you these condolences from the family and friends of your late Husband, Father, Brother, Cousin, Uncle, Minister,

Most Rev. Usang Iso (AKA Dear Friends)

With hearts that have remained sad since the passage unto glory of your beloved, we express our deep pain at the loss of such a dearly beloved friend who passed on at the age of 72years.

Our thoughts and prayers remain with you even as they are with us, as we jointly our last homage to such a gentle, sympathetic, kindhearted person with an infectious smile. A Minister with a passion for the things of God. A loving husband, father, friend and beloved community leader.

As we grow older, our circle of friends begins to thin out. While knowing that we did not come to live forever, it still becomes painful losing two good friends in one year and in close successions. My family and I will miss Most Rev. Usang Iso very dearly in this period where the first pain still remains burning.

We all must find solace in the saying that "Earth's Loss is Heaven's gain". His gentle sweet voice now ministers directly to his Lord and Master, while teaching angels how to love their Creator.

May we all remain condoled by the good Lord at this irreparable loss.
